

WINNETKA EXHIBIT IS MECCA AT STATE EXPO

Panorama Painting of Village Done by Allen Philbrick Attracts Visiting Throgs

Winnetka's contribution to the Illinois Products exposition at the Exposition Palace, Chicago, pictured on the cover of this issue of Winnetka Talk was inspected by many thousands of visitors at the exposition this week, and to say that the observers were interested, would be putting the matter a bit too mildly.

The beautiful 20-foot panorama painting of the village, done by Allen Philbrick, local artist was an inviting sight, especially to the city-dwelling contingent among the spectators.

Members of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce were at the booth every day during the exhibition ready to answer any questions regarding the village.

The Illinois Products Exposition was a remarkable display of the diversified activities of the state in regard to its agricultural, mining, and industrial output. There were to be seen manufactures ranging from pins to pianos, the products of enormous oil fields near Lawrenceville, Cairo's coal and cotton and other products of the "land of plenty"; beautiful grain and fruit from the great corn fields and orchards of central Illinois; dairy products and samples of the enormous output of the great industrial centers, among which, of course, Chicago was most prominent. Every section of the state was represented.

It was estimated that the total number of visitors to the exposition would exceed 250,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Odell and family, 855 Hill road, have recently returned from their summer outing at East Brewster, Mass., on Cape Cod.

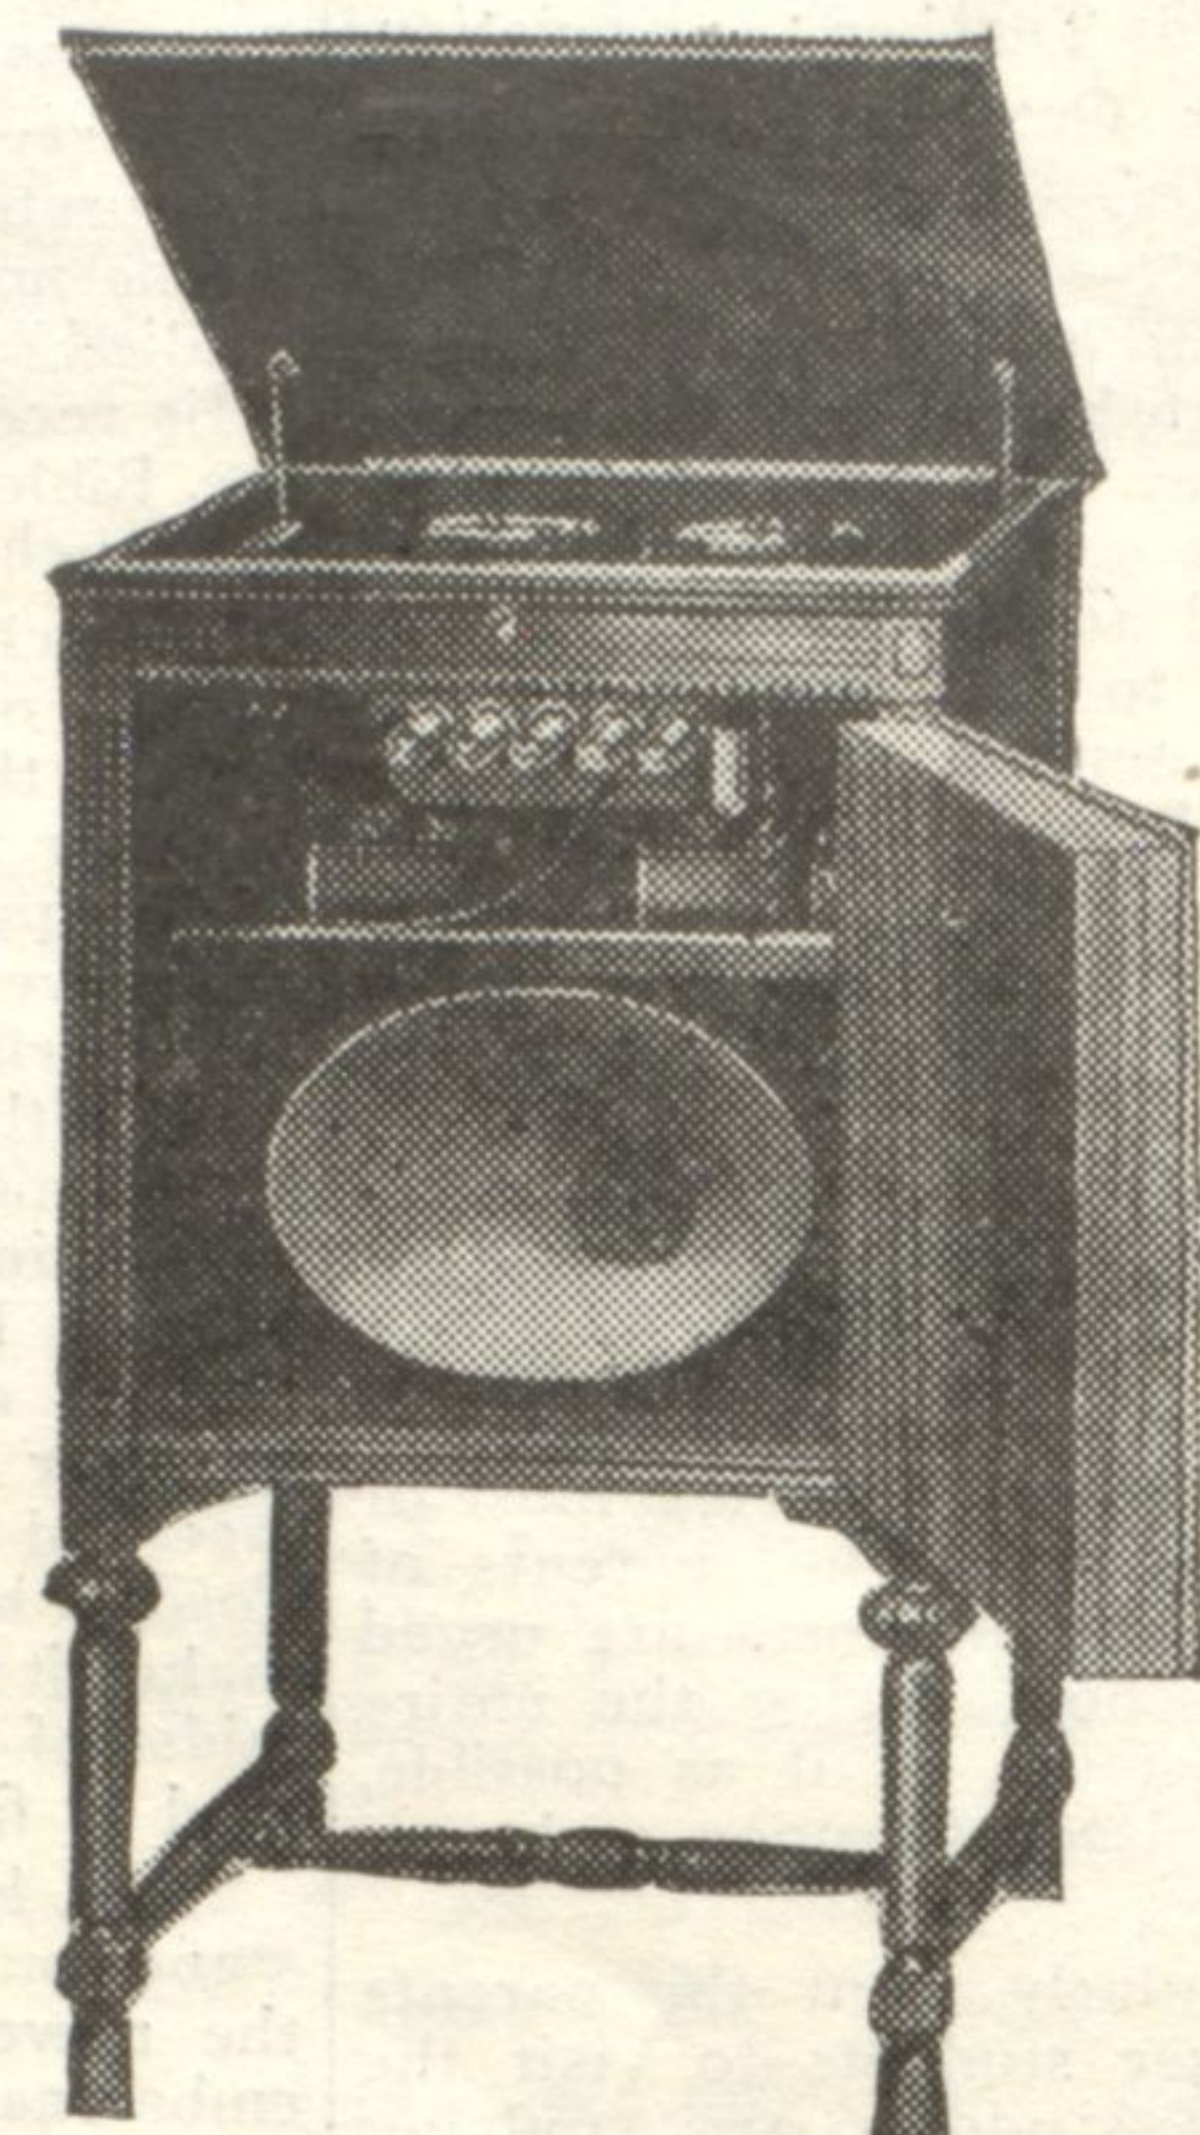

The Parker Gowings who have been spending the summer in Winnetka, have returned to Chicago and are residing at their home at 50 East Elm street.
