

Who Wouldn't Journey To Evanston for Such Delicious Food!

PEOPLE COME all the way from Chicago and as far north as Lake Forest to dine at The Library Plaza Cafeteria in Evanston—a remarkable tribute to the goodness of Plaza food.

The picture above is just a small section of the tempting array of good things to eat always ready at this pleasant place to dine—appetizing cocktails, delicious salads, savory soups, fish, meats and desserts in endless variety. One never tires of dining at The Plaza—Plaza chefs see to this with the most extensive and elaborate menu on the North Shore. No matter how pettish your appetite—there is always something to please at The Plaza.

The same faces—the same family groups meal after meal prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Library Plaza Cafeteria is the most popular place to dine between Chicago and Milwaukee. Come Sunday for dinner and be convinced.
