

Students Mourn Death of Former Schoolmate

Beautiful and impressive funeral services for Mamie Franco, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Franco, 480 Rosewood avenue, were held at the home Wednesday afternoon of last week. The girl died from injuries received the previous Saturday night in an automobile accident in Wilmette.

The services were conducted by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church. The pall bearers were Roy Fox, Ferrar Luensman, Adam Scott, John Bell, Phillip Blazer and Vernon Eckart.

Miss Franco had been a student at New Trier High school, and many beautiful flowers were sent to the home as an expression of sympathy from her schoolmates, many of whom attended the services. The Lurial was at Memorial Park. A. Franco, the father, expressed his gratitude for the many tokens of sympathy which were received by him. His other daughter, Edna, who was also injured in the accident, is convalescing at the Evanston hospital.
