

LEE SAYS:

WELL, if this chilly WEATHER is going to CONTINUE we suppose WE might as well TRY and get our old OVERCOAT out of "soak" BECAUSE we're going TO need it—and we CAN always tell when THE summer's gone BECAUSE the demand AT our fountain for ROOT beer and Coca Cola AND the other cooling DRINKS take a slump— BUT in its place COMES a good healthy DEMAND for hot drinks AND that's where we SHINE—really, we can SERVE you as delicious HOT chocolate as you EVER tasted and we'll CHALLENGE the state of ILLINOIS to produce a BETTER Hot-Malted-Milk WE'LL let you be the JUDGE and the jury, TOO!

WINNETKA 2

A State Bank

A Bank for the Community

◆

IN WINNETKA'S center—an attractive, substantial building of ornamental stone, housing a vital institution of the life of the community.

Not just a financial strongbox—not merely a place to deposit and withdraw funds, but a clearing house of diligent and faithful service to business and to the individual.

We invite you to know this Bank better. We are anxious to have you share in its benefits with an ever-growing family of banking patrons.
