674 HILL ROAD
WINNETKA

Two-piece afternoon dresses, suitable for the matinée, or luncheon in town, in Madonna blue, tobacco brown, red, and Russian green. These dresses are copies of Chenel models, with striped silk blouses, and flat crêpe skirts, either pleated or circular.

Cloth coats, in new English materials, beautifully tailored, either lined in fur, or with fur trimming, for the foot-ball season. They are copies of "JENNY" models, and are quite different from the usual clumsy-looking winter coats, one sees everywhere.

A new collection of evening gowns, models from Premet, Lanvin, Molyneux and Vionnet, chiffon, satin, and metal cloth, for the matron as well as the jeune fille. Dresses for Palm Beach, and the winter resorts, arriving daily, in fascinating colors, styles, and materials.

The Man o' The House came thundering round and wanted this and that and the other to get the cold out and the heat in and to get 'em to so that it did not mean a lot of expense. That is why he was so satisfied with our many heating conveniences and fuel savers.
