

Tenth District of I. F. W. C. Will Have District Day

The clubs of the Tenth district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, will gather at the Rogers Park Woman's club, Tuesday, November 10, for an all-day session, commencing at 10 in the morning and lasting until 4 o'clock in the afternoon

The Tenth District president, Mrs. William F. Farrell, is featuring the occasion as District day, and in the morning the chairmen of the different departments will tell of their work. In the afternoon, Mrs. J. Marc Fowler, first vice-president of the state federation, will speak on the work of that organization.

The speaker of the day will be Mrs. George W. Plummer, who is chairman of applied education in the general federation of clubs, and is considered a lecturer of fine ability. The subject of her talk will be, "Education Plus."

To Offer Lectures on New Trier Symphony Concerts

To those women of the north shore who attend the concerts by the Symphony Players of Chicago at the New Trier High School auditorium, the Woman's club of Wilmette is offering a course of six lectures by Tina Mae Haines, commencing Monday, November 16, and occurring each afternoon of the concerts at New Trier. Miss Haines will discuss in detail the program to be given by the players the evening of the talk, and will cause concert hearers to find a greater wealth of interest and enjoyment in the music because of increased knowledge. The talks will begin at 1:30 o'clock, and last for one hour.

Tickets for the lectures, which will be given under the auspices of the music department of the Woman's Club of Wilmette, may be procured from Mrs. B. F. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. W. F. English, Jr., Mrs. G. R. Stewart, Mrs. Fred O. Ebeling, and Mrs. R. A. Wheelock, all of Wilmette.

The Home and Garden club met with Mrs. Theodore E. Moritz, 226 Warwick road, Kenilworth, Monday. Robert B. Faxon of Evanston gave a most enjoyable talk on "Trees and Shrubs."

Mrs. Louis C. Bouchard, 222 Oxford road, Kenilworth, entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Orrington hotel, Wednesday.

To Open Home for Sale of War Veterans' Goods

Mrs. John Boylston will open her home, Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, Friday, November 6, for a sale of articles made by disabled veterans at Great Lakes, commencing at 9 o'clock in the morning and lasting throughout the day. Women of the north shore who take interest in helping the disabled veterans, are invited to Mrs. Boylston's home, where, among other articles, rag rugs, baskets, coin purses and silk rugs made from stockings will be on sale. The affair will be held under the auspices of the Woman's Catholic club of Wilmette.

Arden Shore Association to Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Arden Shore association will be held Friday, November 20. Members of the board will invite guests for the morning session that convenes at 10 o'clock, and for the luncheon following. Annual reports will be read, and the nominating committee will report officers for the coming year. This committee, of which Mrs. August C. Magnus is chairman, and Mrs. William Sherman Hay and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock, the other members, is composed of Winnetka women.

ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth entertained at a delightful buffet supper last Sunday evening in honor of the Countess d'Aix before her departure for New York where she will spend the winter.

Distinguished artists gave a group of musical numbers and a literary program was another feature of the afternoon. Among the guests were many prominent Chicago women.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Allen, 423 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, left Tuesday to spend a week in New Orleans.

The Flavor is Roasted In!

REMEMBER that delicious cup of coffee you drank at a certain dinner? Its tempting, fragrant aroma! Its full, rich coffee taste! Steaming, golden brown!

Your coffee in your own home can be just as good as that. For the secret of satisfying coffee lies largely in the roasting, and White House Coffee has the flavor roasted in.

Insist on White House Coffee and you'll get all of Nature's coffee goodness, saved for your cup by our special White House roasting process. Do not accept a substitute for White House Coffee with the flavor roasted in.
