

Bazaar in Winnetka Will Aid Sick and Crippled Children

On the afternoon of November 6, Mrs. George F. Suker, 1028 Starr road, Winnetka, will open her house for a small bazaar to be given by the Woman's auxiliary of the Maternity and Children's ward of the Post Graduate hospital at 2400 Dearborn street. In this ward the patients are taken regardless of creed or color, and given gratis nurse and doctor services, both medical and surgical. The proceeds of this bazaar are especially intended to aid the sick and crippled children. The bazaar will be open from 2 o'clock until 6 and the public is invited. Afternoon tea will be served. The assisting hostesses are: Mrs. Edgar Crilly, Mrs. Walter Neilson and Mrs. Duane Peterson of Winnetka, and Mrs. Emit Staehlin of Glencoe.

Woman's Catholic Club Greets Its New Members

One of the large meetings of the autumn season was that given by the civics department of the Woman's Catholic Club of Wilmette, Mrs. Joseph Jenks, chairman, Friday afternoon, October 23, at the auditorium of the St. Francis Xavier school, with many new members in attendance. The program was of two-fold interest, for Parnell Egan sang a group of songs and Madame Leila Blomfield gave an interesting talk on "The Smallest Democracy in the World." Mrs. W. D. Leary, Mrs. C. F. Bunte and Mrs. A. M. Krafthefer were the hostesses of the afternoon.

Woman's Ideal Club Holds Regular Meeting Friday

A regular meeting of the Chicago Woman's Ideal club was held at the Blackstone hotel, October 30, at 11 o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Gustave A. Brand began a series of five mornings adapted to "The American Woman in the Home." The afternoon's program followed the serving of a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, the first vice-president presiding. Lorna Doone Jackson, mezzo-soprano with the San Carlo Opera company, accompanied by Cara Verson, a noted pianist of Germany, were the guests of honor and the artists.

Herbert B. Taylor, 631 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, spent three days in Kansas City, Mo., this last week.

Congressman to Address Library Club of Glencoe

Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth, congressman-at-large, a former president of the Hamilton club, and distinguished as an orator, will give a talk on "Life at Washington," before the Woman's Library Club of Glencoe, Thursday, November 5. Mr. Rathbone was selected as the Lincoln's birthday orator before the House of Representatives last year, and it is stated that his address delivered before that body attracted widespread attention. Mrs. Gordon A. Ramsay is the hostess for October.

Mrs. V. K. Spicer, 312 Essex road, and her mother, Mrs. Higginson, are motoring back to Kenilworth from their summer home in Massachusetts, and Mr. Spicer is making the journey by train.

CLEAN COAL CLEANLY DELIVERED

is what we offer. Coal free from slate and dirt, deliveries made with every possible care to avoid "mussing up the place." Better hurry up with your order is our advice. Don't order more than you'll need. But this is the proper season to fill coal cellars and you can conscientiously order now what you will require this Fall and Winter.
