

Voters League Puts Aside Problems for Cards November 12

Thursday afternoon, November 12, cards, gay chatter and refreshments will temporarily take the place that the World Court and Child Labor problems usually hold in the minds of the members of the Winnetka League of Women Voters. For, in order to raise money to carry on the work of the league, that organization is giving a card party and all the north shore is invited to attend.

At 2 o'clock the lines of cars will begin to park along Maple and Oak streets, flanking the Woman's club house on both sides. Mrs. Isaac Rothschild, chairman of the committee in charge, assisted by Mesdames Herman Beardslee, John Vander Vries and Percival Hunter will act as hostesses and show people to their tables. Guests are asked to bring cards.

There are to be no hard and fast rules, it was announced. As there is to be a prize for each and every table, each table may make its own rules and even choose its own game. Refreshments will be served to all in the course of the afternoon.

Those who prefer stories to cards are invited to the home of Mrs. Hathaway Watson on Sunset road, to hear stories of the South in darky dialect and delightful tales of French Canadian frontiersmen told by Mrs. Burton Hanson. The league feels particularly delighted to be able to secure Mrs. Hanson who has pleased many audiences along the north shore with her art.

Tickets for both the card party and the reading will be on sale at the Community House or from Mrs. Rothschild until the day of the party. If there are any tables left over tickets may be obtained at the door.

Fred Hagen of Hubbard Woods, was among those planning to attend the Illinois-Chicago game at Champaign this week.

Forget-Me-Not Group Fetes Lakes Veterans

Members of the Winnetka Forget-me-not committee gave a birthday party at the Great Lakes hospital last week. The party was for all those soldiers whose birthdays fell in October. A special luncheon was served, with a huge cake, lighted with candles, occupying the center of the table, which was gay with Hallowe'en decorations. Each of the disabled veterans received a present from the committee. Cigars and cigarets were also distributed. Following the meal there was a program after which the committee inspected the workshop where the veterans are making various novelties for sale.

Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Mehlig of Torreon, Mexico, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sterrett of 488 Ash street.

Rhythmic Classes Win Interest of Children

Many Winnetkans are interested in a class in "Bentley rhythms" which is being given at the Howard school, Wilmette, by Miss Mabel Katherine Pearse. The class is held on Wednesday afternoons, and is sponsored by the Logan-Howard Parent-Teacher association. There is room for more children, it was announced. Several Winnetka children have already entered the class. Rhythm work is new to the north shore, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bunker have rented their home at 656 Lincoln avenue, and are moving to Grass Lake, Michigan.

Mrs. Percival Hunter of 510 Ash street gave a birthday party for four of her friends at the Cardinal Tea House Friday.

For a Delightful Change of Menu—

Serve Jones Dairy Farm sausage meat. An old fashioned delicacy that has never been surpassed. Exactly the same as Jones Little Sausages—but without the expensive casing, so costs less.

To remove sausage meat from parchment wrapper, dip entire package in cold water. Then if you wish to slice the sausage, cut through paper and all. Peel paper off afterward.
