

Dudley Smiths Give Delightful Musicales at Winnetka Home

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley L. Smith gave a very charming musical Sunday afternoon, November 1, at their home, 819 Humboldt avenue. The first number on the program was "Carnaval" by Schumann, played by Dudley L. Smith. Mr. Smith is not only a pianist, but is also a well known organist, having played for many years at the Pilgrim church in Oak Park.

The next number was a group of songs sung by Edith Richelsen Brown, contralto, who is now singing at the Pilgrim church. Her voice is very rich and beautiful in tone. A group of violin selections including "Romance," by Cyril Scott, and "Nocturne," by Faure, was then played by Louis Blackman. Mr. Blackman is prominent in musical circles, being connected with the Northwestern University School of Music and having played for many years with the Grand Opera orchestra.

The next selections, which were sung by Frederick Huntley, a baritone, with full rich notes, who is a soloist at the Christian Science church at Highland Park, were of special interest as they were composed by Dudley L. Smith. They were "What Shall It Profit a Man," "When I Consider Thy Heavens," and "Nunc Dimittis." Then followed two piano solos by Grace Rogers Burlin, "Arabesque" and "Soaring," by Schumann. These were played with great brilliancy. Mrs. Burlin also accompanied Mr. Blackman and Mr. Huntley. Two more songs, "The Clock" and "My Lover He Comes on the Ski," were sung by Mrs. Brown and the program concluded with "Promise" and "Rolling Down to Rio," sung by Mr. Huntley and accompanied by Mr. Smith.

Invitations have been issued on the north shore by Mrs. George A. McKinlock and Miss Muriel McCormick to a Red Cross tea Monday, November 9, from 3 until 6 o'clock, at the Casino club.
