

The Sentinel

One of the most attractive posters which have yet been issued by the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad is the latest one entitled "Over Old Indian Trails." Few are the north shore residents who can remember ever having seen an Indian native in these parts, but, nevertheless, many of our present roads were originally Indian trails and many were the Indian villages along the shores of the 'shining big sea water.' The Indian scout, gazing out across the mists of the Skokie valley, as pictured in this poster must have been a familiar figure at one time, and perhaps, in these Indian Summer nights, when the moon is big and a soft haze

SETS WEDDING DAY

Invitations have been sent out this week for the wedding of Miss Mildred Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howe, 555 Walnut avenue, and Dwight B. Engraved Cards mean EARLIER Xmas Shopping

Now, before the early Christmas shopping season begins, thoughtful and discriminating persons are selecting and placing orders for engraved Christmas cards. A most skilled and competent force of engravers serve our Engraving department—but they can't do justice to orders unless they are placed early.

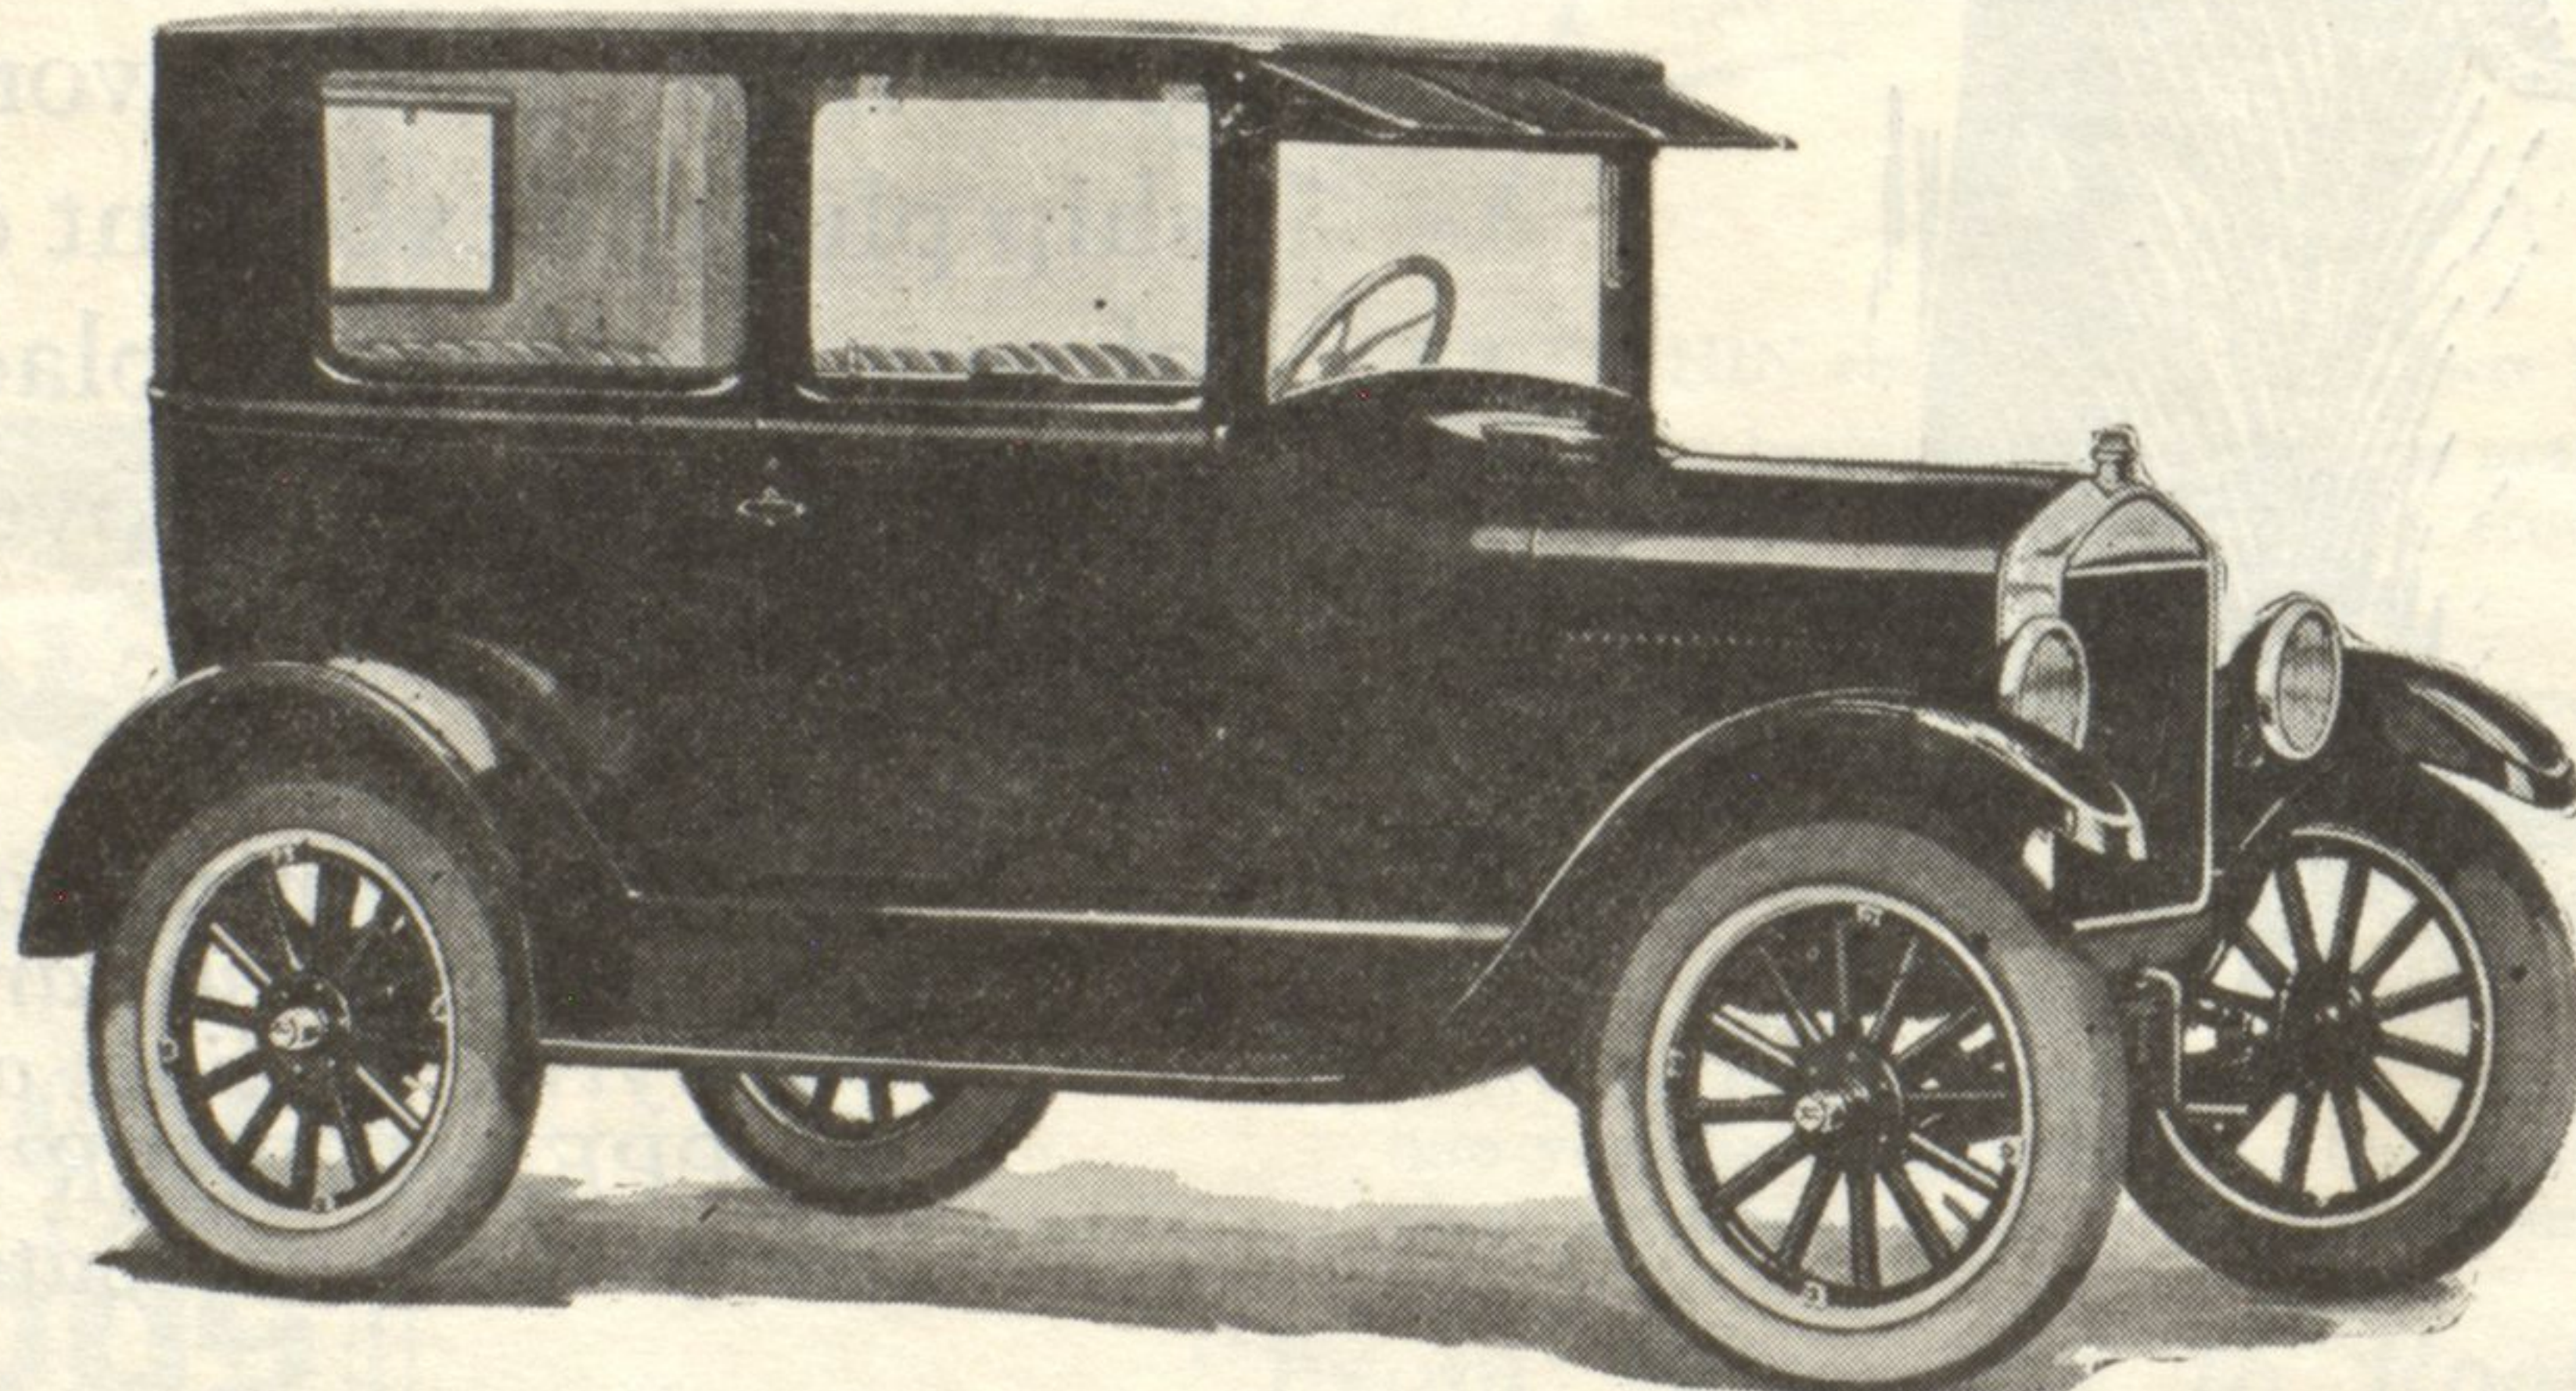

Every type of engraving is produced by this department—if it's from Lord's it is correct.
