

Manus' Subdivision May Be Zoned Residential

An ordinance zoning Manus' Indian Hill subdivision all in residential classification, was introduced at the meeting of the council last Tuesday evening. This territory was annexed to the village by an ordinance which became effective recently. This ordinance will be submitted to the zoning board of appeals for consideration and it is probable that a public hearing will be called for the purpose of considering any amendments which may be desired.

Mrs. Henry J. Cary-Curr, 1051 Spruce street, spent last week-end as the guest of Mrs. Samuel Dean of Hinsdale, formerly of Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Carry-Curr have as their guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Pugh of Milwaukee and Miss Elsa Krueger of Watertown.

One of the recent affairs given at the close of the fall season at Sunset Ridge club was the tea given by Mrs. Henry K. Urion in honor of two new residents in the village, Mrs. Clarence Randall, who formerly lived in Ishpeming, Mich., and Mrs. William Rose, a former resident of Pelham, N. Y.

The William C. Boydens of 725 Pine street have moved into Chicago this week where they have taken an apartment at 237 Delaware place. They are keeping their Winnetka home open, however, and expect to be in the village week-ends.

RE-ELECTED TO OFFICE

Willoughby Walling of Private road, was re-elected president of the Chicago Council of Social Agencies, 308 North Michigan avenue, at its annual meeting Saturday, October 31. The council represents 252 social agencies and creates methods of financial administration of Chicago's various social service centers.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. William Colvin, Jr., formerly of Walden road, who sailed from New York in mid-October, that they are comfortably located in London and are enjoying the English atmosphere of their new home immensely. They are to spend eighteen months traveling through Europe, including England, France, and Holland in their itinerary.

Mrs. James A. Richards of 739 Lincoln avenue has returned to Winnetka after attending the National Council of Congregational churches at Washington. Mrs. Frank Ferry and Mrs. Douglas Smith of Winnetka also went east for the event.

Jerome Straus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Straus of 887 Spruce street, will be host to a group of young boys Saturday, November 7, at his home in honor of his twelfth birthday.

Miss Eileen Thiehoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thiehoff, 1172 Hamptondale road, will leave November 12, for a fortnight's visit at the home of her brother in Lincoln Neb.

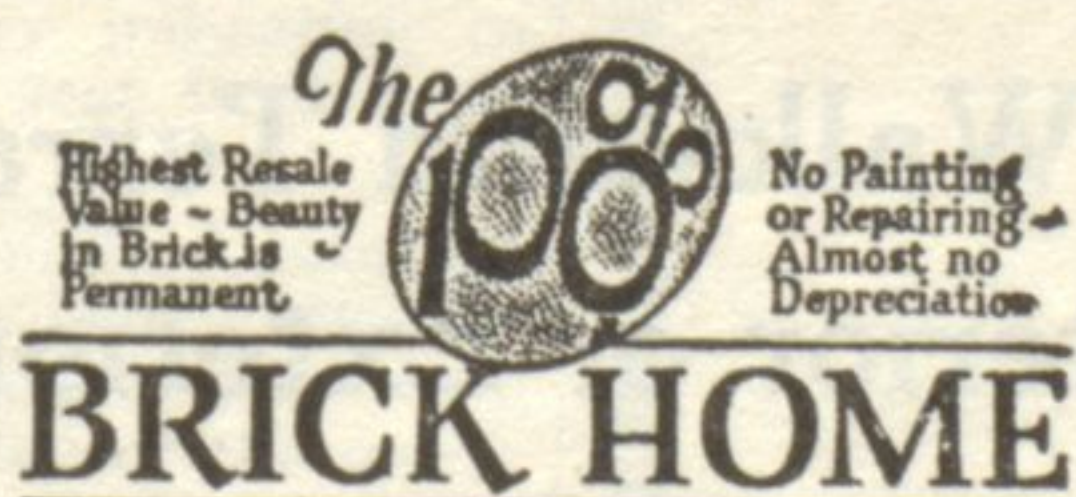

JAMES ROY ALLEN, Architect

Brick Homes Raise Property Values

Values jump and sales are easier, just as soon as the building of a brick home begins.

As automobile value is based on resale value—so is the value of the home, built or bought, to be determined.

Build 100% Brick homes—only. They will pay you back many fold—satisfy home owners—assure resale value.

For Beauty with Economy Build with Common Brick

CHICAGO BRICK EXCHANGE
133 West Washington Street • CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

ALTERATION SALE

Our entire stock of Ladies' and Misses' Ready-to-Wear is to be sold regardless of price. This merchandise has been slightly damaged by smoke only.

Ladies' and Misses' Coats

33 1/3% off

These unusual offerings merit your immediate investigation. The styles and materials are the latest.

DRESSES as low as

70% off

This is your opportunity to complete your entire winter's wardrobe with an array of sport and evening gowns at a great saving.

OTHER ITEMS REDUCED

Remember—everything in our store is to be sharply reduced. Brassieres, Stockings, Underwear, Waists, Skirts, Knickers, Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Corsets, Millinery, Sweaters, Slips, Bloomers.

EVERYTHING FOR THE WOMAN'S WARDROBE

Unique Style Shop

1126 CENTRAL AVENUE, WILMETTE
Wilmette 2403