

TEACHERS TO ATTEND MEETING AT EVANSTON

Instructors in North Shore Schools Will Hear Noted Educator at Institute

Divisions one, two and three of Cook county schools will attend the annual meeting of the Teachers' Institute, to be held at the Evanston Woman's club Monday, November 9, beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. All teachers from Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka and Glencoe will attend this meeting, and the schools in those villages will be closed all day Monday.

The morning program is as follows: Music, by Boltwood School orchestra, B. F. Stuber, conductor; greetings, by Edward J. Tobin, Cook county superintendent of schools; address—"M'sieu Robin," by Wallace Bruce Amsbary, professional lecturer of general literature, Armour School of Technology; music, by Imperial quartet, Chicago; illustrated address—"Other Worlds Than Ours," by Dr. F. R. Moulton, University of Chicago.

Gilkey is Speaker

The afternoon program of the Institute will be held at the First Congregational church at Hinman avenue and Lake street, Evanston. There will be a story, "He Knew Lincoln," by Henry Walter Graham, Chicago's humorous story teller, and an address on "India From an American Point of View—America From an Indian Point of View," by the Rev. Charles W. Gilkey of the Hyde Park Baptist church, Chicago. The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of teachers are expected to attend the meetings.

Wilmette Man Rescues Companion from Cave-in

Bernard Doepp, of Wilmette, saved a fellow workman from probable death when sand caved in upon both the men while they were digging a sewer at Asbury avenue and Oakton street, Evanston, last Wednesday afternoon. The man rescued was Tony Alphonse, 1518 Brown avenue, Evanston. He was buried under 15 feet of sand when the cave-in occurred. Doepp, who was only buried up to his shoulders, managed to get out, and by frantic digging he reached Alphonse, who was unconscious. He was latter revived and proved to be unharmed by his experience. Police and fire departments arrived just as the man was being rescued.

New Trier Celebrates Homecoming Saturday

Saturday, November 7, will be Homecoming Day for New Trier high school. There will be a football game with Waukegan on the New Trier field at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and in the morning there will be a parade, with many floats which have been prepared by the various adviser rooms of the school. Many of the alumni are expected back and it is thought that the seating capacity at the football field will be taxed to the limit.

The New Trier trio which played following the Mothers' and Daughters' banquet at New Trier last Tuesday evening is composed of George Swigart, violin, Estelle Swigart, cello, and Frances Anderson, piano, of Wilmette.

Allen Bulley, 220 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, went to Philadelphia last week-end to attend the Illinois-Pennsylvania game. He met his sister, Miss Bernice Bulley, who came on from Wellesley for the event.

Noted Woman Journalist Speaks Before Students

Mrs. Genevieve Forbes Herrick, of the Chicago Tribune, addressed several groups at New Trier High school last Thursday. Before two sociology classes the subject of her talk was the problem of handling immigrants. Several years ago Mrs. Herrick, then Miss Genevieve Forbes, "scooped the world" by a secret trip to Ireland, from where she returned in the steerage, passing herself off for an immigrant. She then wrote a series of articles about her experiences on the boat, and especially at Ellis Island, which caused federal investigation and a huge stir all over the country, so her information was authentic and first hand. Mrs. Herrick also gave an impromptu talk before R. H. Carpenter's journalism class.

SELL KENILWORTH HOME

Hill and Stone, real estate brokers, announce this week the recent sale by Mr. and Mrs. William D. Glennon of their home at 515 Roslyn road, Kenilworth, for an undisclosed consideration. Mr. and Mrs. Glennon have purchased the De Lachepelle lot on Warwick road just north of Oxford road through the same brokers.

Mrs. John C. Carpenter, 422 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, entertained at two luncheons and bridge parties, on Wednesday of last week, and the other Thursday of this week.

Mrs. James H. Prentiss, 201 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, left Monday evening for Florida to join her husband in St. Augustine.
