

Winnetka Voters Discuss World Court at Circle Meetings

The Winnetka League of Women Voters Speakers' bureau was kept very busy this week addressing the many circle meetings on the subject of the World Court. Mrs. William B. Hale, chairman of the foreign relations committee of the league, and consequently in close touch with this subject, addressed meetings on the afternoon of Tuesday, November 10, going from the home of Mrs. Ralph S. Childs, 906 Oak street, where the Oak Street circle was meeting, to the Ash Street circle meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruno Menzen at 916 Ash street, and then on to the Scott Avenue circle which met at the home of Mrs. W. O. Kurtz, 1229 Scott avenue.

On the same afternoon, Mrs. John Vander Vries, vice-president of the Winnetka league, addressed the West Elm Street circle at the home of Mrs. William Smith, 1078 Elm street, and the Cherry Street circle at the home of Mrs. Harry Cadenhead, 414 Provident avenue.

Also on the same day, Mrs. George Gordon, as speaker for the Winnetka League of Voters, gave a talk before the Lincoln Avenue circle at the home of Mrs. Francis Case on Sheridan road.

Mrs. R. S. Childs, chairman of the league's Speakers' bureau, reports that fourteen of the nineteen circles have already arranged for her speakers to address them on the subject of "America's Entry into the World Court." She has arranged to take care of all these meetings this month so that knowledge on this subject will be as widespread as possible before the matter comes up for congressional action in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Howard of 643 Walden road announce the birth of a son, Charles Nevin, Wednesday, November 11, at the Evanston hospital.

Interpreter

Miss Clara Bloomfield, unrivalled in the art of presenting folk songs of all nations, will be in Winnetka next Friday evening in joint recital with Henry Cowell, pianist. Miss Bloomfield is regarded as one of the greatest of interpretative artists. She received her training from such notable artists as Lombardi, Schumann-Heink, Sembrich and Guilbert.
