

Birth Control Will Provide Subject at Meeting in Chicago

There will be an all-day conference on birth control at the Chicago Woman's club, 410 S. Michigan avenue, Monday, November 16 to which the public is invited.

At the morning session beginning at 10:30 o'clock, the speakers will be Dr. Thomas D. Eliot, associate professor of sociology at Northwestern university, Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence of London, prominent suffrage leader and feminist, and Dr. Rachele Yarros of Hull House.

There will be a luncheon at 12:30 for which reservations may be made at the Chicago Woman's club before Monday. At this luncheon there will be reports on the local situation and Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence will tell about the London clinics.

The afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock. Dr. C. C. Little, president of the University of Michigan, will be the first speaker. His topic will be "Education and Birth Control." He will be followed by Dr. William Allen Pusey of Chicago, former president of the American Medical association, who will read a paper on "The Responsibility of the Medical Profession in Regard to Birth Control."

This conference is open to all men and women who are interested, it is explained. It offers an unusual opportunity to hear an authoritative discussion of birth control from the scientific, educational, and social aspects, it is said.
