

'SAMSON AND DELILAH' NEXT SUNDAY'S OPERA

"Suburban Special" Will Find
Homer and Marshall Singing
the Leading Roles

Sunday, November 15 brings a decided novelty in the bill of the Chicago Civic Opera company for the "Suburban Special," as the matinee performance is known, because of the big out-of-town patronage drawn every Sunday afternoon. "Samson and Delilah" will be sung, a spectacular opening for the third week. A star cast, including Louise Homer, Charles Marshall, Edouard Cotreuil, Cesare Formichi, Jose Mojica, Ladovico Oliviero, Antonio Nicolich and Desire Defrere will interpret the colorful Biblical opera.

Monday, November 16 brings a repetition of "Manon Lescaut," with Muzio, Cortis, Rimini and Cotreuil in the cast. Moranzoni will conduct. Tuesday, Gounod's masterpiece, "Faust" will be given with Miss Sawyer in the role of Marguerite. Others in the cast include Hackett, Bonelli and Lazzari. Grovlez conducting.

Wednesday, "The Masked Ball" will be repeated with Raisa, Marshall, Lenska and Steel; Polacco conducting. "Die Walkuere" will be given its premiere performance of the season on Thursday evening with Ferrai, Van Gordon, Lenska, Lamont, Kionis and Cotreuil in the cast; Polacco conducting. Friday night no performance is scheduled. Saturday afternoon, November 21, "Martha" will be sung with Mason, Pavloska, Schipa, Lazzari and Trevisan; Moranzoni conducting. Saturday night "Il Trovatore" will be sung at popular prices with Muzio, Lenska, Cortis and Bonelli; Weber conducting.

Charles Moor, the German opera expert brought from Darmstadt to stage "Der Rosenkavalier" for the Chicago Civic Opera company and who has attracted wide attention not only through the success of that production but also because of the fact that in spite of his unique German status he is a Scotchman, has deferred his return to Germany to accept a second commission from the Chicago company. He will stage a revival of "Die Walkuere" Friday, November 19, leaving immediately thereafter to resume his duties as stage director at the Landes theatre, Darmstadt.

Mrs. Jacob Jaedecke of 518 Rosewood avenue was hostess to a few friends at a bridge tea at her home Friday, November 6.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Townsend and daughter of New York, are occupying the John Bunker home at 656 Lincoln avenue for the winter.

Critics Acclaim Lusk in Recent Appearances

Milan Lusk, internationally known violinist, residing at 810 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, achieved new laurels when he appeared within the last fortnight in two recitals at Orchestra hall. The leading critics of the Chicago dailies commented in no uncertain terms about his artistry, temperament, and remarkable technic. DeVries in the American, spoke of Lusk as a "sincere" artist and was impressed by the rhythmic play effect of his playing. Gunn in the Herald-Examiner began his review with heavy headline "Lusk In Fine Recital" and continued: "Lusk is one of the younger violin virtuesi who should be heard oftener. He has tone, technic, and magnetism."

Mr. Lusk also filled several important dates in the states of Missouri, Nebraska, and Minnesota last week. He appeared in joint recital with Allen McQuhae, well known tenor and was accorded everywhere an enthusiastic reception. He is booked for several big events this month, one on November 20 when he appears with Helen Freund, soprano, of the Chicago Civic opera.
