New Bell Pleases With Its Melodious Chiming

The bell in the tower of the new Village hall has been installed and now strikes the hours and half hours to inform residents of the village of the time. Many favorable comments on the clear sweet tone of the bell have been received. When it is quiet the chimes can be heard in nearly all sections of the village and they are easily heard throughout the Elm street business district and the vicinity.

The Wolf patrol of Troop III was the best patrol. The Scouts are—Patrol Leader Fred Rummler, Assistant Patrol Leader Eugene Frank, William Bennett, Steve Windes, and Earl Bates. After the awarding of medals, Troops II and III went into the gym for some exciting games, while Troop I stayed in the Assembly room for patrol meeting.

"We may live without poetry,
music and art;
We may live without conscience,
We may live without heart,
We may live without books.
What is knowledge but grieving?
We may live without hope.
What is hope but deceiving?
We may live without love.
What is passion but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?"
