

Soloist

A genuine treat is in store for subscribers to the New Trier Orchestral association concerts Tuesday evening, November 24, when Miss Catherine Wade-Smith, youthful violinist, appears as soloist with the Symphony Players of Chicago. A brilliant career has been predicted for her by leading music critics of the country.

Public Schools to Hold Thanksgiving Programs

Winnetka schools will observe Thanksgiving with special programs next Wednesday, the day before the holiday. The Greeley school will have music appropriate to the occasion and a speech by Howard Funk, of the school. The Horace Mann school will have several short pantomimes in addition to music and the Skokie school will have music and a program that has not yet been completed.

Children Find Joy in Recitalists' Program

Henry Cowell, composer-pianist, and Clara Bloomfield, interpreter of folk songs, appeared in joint recital at the Skokie school auditorium Friday afternoon and evening of this week. In the afternoon all the Winnetka school children above the third grade gathered at the auditorium to hear these artists in a program especially adapted for children. The evening performance was for adults and attracted a large gathering. Mr. Cowell is the composer of futuristic music and has created quite a stir in musical circles both here and abroad.

—Christmas in Five Weeks—

"You have a better selection of Christmas cards than most of the loop stores," said one of our customers this week.

We think she's right and so will you if you drop in and look them over. Most every kind—at prices to suit you.

But come in this week if possible. A choice assortment of Christmas cards now may be a very poor assortment later on.

And notice that with every purchase there is
