

Ball Patroness

Mrs. Charles A. Barton of 1216 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, who is president of the Woman's Catholic club, will be one of a long list of patronesses for the large charity ball to be given November 27. This affair, anticipated as one of the outstanding social events of the year, will be given under the auspices of the Wilmette Woman's Catholic club.

The Occupational Therapy exhibit at the Evanston Woman's club December 1 and 2, will be in charge of Miss Dean of the Evanston hospital staff, assisted by Mrs. Clifford Baugh, a member of the same staff.

Mrs. Albertina Grabo Is Summoned by Death

Funeral services for Mrs. Albertina Rubach Grabo of 626 Pleasant road, Kenilworth, who passed away Tuesday, November 17, will be held from the residence Saturday at 1:30 o'clock and from St. John's Lutheran church at 2 o'clock. Burial will be at Memorial Park.

Mrs. Grabo came to New Trier in 1867 and has since that time maintained her residence on the north shore, living at different intervals in Wilmette, Kenilworth and Glencoe. She was particularly active in the Woman's Missionary society of St. John's church. She is survived by her husband, two sons and four daughters.

New Trier Beaten by Evanston Squad, 26-0

New Trier High school gridders went down in defeat before the Evanston High huskies last Saturday at Evanston. When the final whistle blew the score was 26-0 in favor of Evanston, which allows the latter to tie for the suburban championship. New Trier relied on its fast passing attack, but lack of an adequate receiver spoiled its chances. The Evanston squad played straight football throughout the game.

The Walden Road Neighborhood Bridge club will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olsen, 1000 Vine street, Monday, November 23.
