

Circus Cheers Child Patients

Little patients at the Evanston hospital forget their trying treatments and their suffering when happily occupied with handicraft. Supervised by Miss Alice H. Dean, (right) director of the department of occupational therapy, and her assistant, Miss Kathryn B. Butts, (left) they recently constructed a complete miniature circus which has attracted the interest of many visitors and members of the hospital staff.

Mrs. A. J. Byrne, a former Glencoe resident, who has made her home in the Isle of Pines for several years, is the guest of Mrs. P. D. Blake, 429 Linden avenue
