Invite Mothers to Hear Noted Psycho- Analyst Wednesday

Wednesday evening, November 25, Frederick Pierce, who is internationally famous as a clinical and research psychologist, author and lecturer, will speak at the Evanston Woman's club at 8:15 o'clock, under auspices of the H. H. C. Miller School Mothers' club. Mr. Pierce is considered one of the four greatest psycho-analysts of the world. He is the author of "Mobilizing the Mid-Brain." His subject Wednesday night will be "The new way with children and the problem of the American child." The committee feels that many mothers in north shore villages will not want to miss such an opportunity.

Tickets may be obtained at the door, or from any member of the following committee of Evanston women, many of whom are well known on the north shore: Mrs. Frederick Connor, chairman; Mesdames C. A. Burnell, Richard Crampton, Duke Doubleday, Edward Hall, Bayless French, Donald Miller, William Mulholland, Ernest Palmer, Sidney Porter, Norman Parker and Alex Walz.

ON CAROL COMMITTEE

Mrs. Harold Ickes and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy of Winnetka are members of a committee formed by Harry Edward Freund for the purpose of singing Christmas carols throughout the city and suburbs Christmas Eve and morning. Others on the committee include John J. Mitchell, Max Mason, Harry Pratt Judson, Walter Dill Scott, Frederick Stock, and William McAndrew. The music research bureau, 165 East Ontario street, will serve as headquarters for the committee and all information may be obtained there at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coburn of Berkeley, Cal., are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, Sunday, November 8. Mrs. Coburn was Miss Maud Hinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hinman of Winnetka. Mrs. Hinman is visiting her daughter in Evanston.
