Byron-Harshaw Musicales Was Attractive Affair

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Charles L. Byron and Mrs. Myron Harshaw entertained at a musicale at Mrs. Byron's home at 768 Foxdale avenue. The affair was particularly interesting as two composers gave their own compositions. Mrs. Amy Worth of Seattle gave a group of her own songs, including "Wind Mill," "Happiness" and "The Fountain." She also played some very charming instrumental numbers. Then Mrs. Loraine Blatz of Milwaukee, a soprano with a very pleasing voice, sang another group of Mrs. Worth's songs. They were, "Daisies," "The Shepherd," "The Lamb" and "The Little God in the Garden." Miss Marian Coryell of Winnetka played some of her own piano compositions including "Largo," a very beautiful number.
