

MacDowell Society Reports Big Growth in Its Membership

The North Shore MacDowell society held a delightful meeting Monday, November 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Pope of Glencoe. Frank Ambler, president, reported that there have been seventy six new members enrolled since the last meeting, making a total of 229 members. After explaining something of the meaning and purpose of the art colony at Petersboro, he introduced the artists of the evening.

Helen Abbott Byfield gave charming groups of songs, including "Sally in Our Alley," the "Little Shepherd Song," and a group of negro spirituals. Ruth Sawyer, a well known authority on folk lore, told an Irish Folk story, a negro tale of Simon Peter, and a French Fable "Le Jongleur of Notre Dame." Her beautiful voice and artistry made the evening a memorable one for her audience.

The North Shore MacDowell society is not to be confused with the Winnetka MacDowell society which changed its name last year to the Winnetka Music club.

Next Concert in All-Star Series Given December 8.

The next artist of note to appear in Highland Park in the All-Star artists series held under auspices of the Community Music committee, will be Renee Chemet, one of the famous violinists, who will make her appearance Tuesday evening, December 8, at the Elm Place auditorium. Music partons of Highland Park and the vicinity are afforded opportunities of hearing these great artists brought to the north shore by a civic enterprise.

Tickets for the four remaining concerts may be obtained from Pratt's United store, 39 S. St. John's place, or through the members of the committee, Mrs. Arthur Byfield, Mrs. Charles Pardee, Mrs. E. F. Nolting, and Mrs. David Thomas, all of Highland Park.

High School Girls Start Annual Red Cross Drive

The yearly Red Cross subscription campaign, now in progress in the north shore villages, began this week at New Trier High school. This year the drive, under the auspices of the charity committee of the girls' club, will last only one week at New Trier. The committee, of which Louise Clabough is chairman, is composed of Marian Wolf, Alison Klock, Jane Philbrick, Jane Babcock, Alice Enright, Bernice Abrahamson, Eleanor Thayer, Catherine Bickham, Jean Watson, Marjory Evers and Betty Webster.

The membership drive will not be carried on through the adviser rooms but the headquarters are at the desk in the front hall at which different members of the charity committee preside.
