

Two Fine Speakers on Next Programs of Woman's Society

The Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church calls attention to the very interesting programs for the coming month.

On Wednesday, December 2, after the usual morning sewing, social fellowship, and luncheon, the committee offers a talk at 1 o'clock by Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCulloch, noted Chicago lawyer and social worker. This program is put on in co-operation with the League of Women Voters and will give a large group of women an opportunity to hear Mrs. McCulloch speak on her interesting subject, "Women's Education."

Wednesday, December 16, beginning at 10 o'clock, there will be another unusual speaker. Rev. Joseph Clarke will speak from his own experiences on "What Fifty Years of Christian Missions Have Wrought on the Congo." Mr. Clarke, who is the father of Mrs. Robert Coit Meleney of Oak street, Winnetka, has had most thrilling experiences with pagan tribes of the interior of Africa. There will also be the "Story of the Dube-Bowl" given by Mrs. Douglas Smith, and music by Mrs. Palmer Kreer.

All who will, are asked to bring gifts of canned goods, fruit, et cetera, for the new mission of the church at "Onward" on the north west side of Chicago. Extend this notice to your friends and neighbors, for all are welcome.

OPERA STAR WEDS HERE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McInnerney on Wynwood lane, was the scene of the recent wedding of Queena Mario, operatic soprano with the Metropolitan Opera company in New York, and Wilfred Peletier, orchestra conductor of the same opera company. They left immediately after the ceremony for a honeymoon in the South. Both Mr. Peletier and his bride have appeared in opera at Ravinia during past years.
