

John Dewar Given Reward for Brave Deed of Long Ago

John Dewar, 797 Pine street, has recently had demonstrated to him the truth of the quotation in the Bible about bread cast upon the waters. On the evening of July 20, 1923, Dewar rescued Sidney Wilcox, 1020 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, from the lake at the Winnetka beach.

Wilcox, an insurance broker, had dived into shallow water, striking his head against the bottom and breaking his neck. Dewar, who was standing nearby, noticed that he didn't return to the surface after the dive so he swam out and brought the man to shore. Wilcox lay for a long while at Evanston hospital in a serious condition, and Dewar heard nothing more from him.

This week Dewar received a gold watch from Tiffany's, of New York, sent by Mr. Wilcox, who has nearly recovered from the accident. Dewar is a student at New Trier high school.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nicholls, 660 Pine street, Winnetka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Charles Ingram Bernard, III, son of Mrs. W. S. Bernard of Evanston, formerly of New York and Dayton.

Winnetkan Is Officer of Association Giving Dance

Benjamin F. Affleck, 695 Lincoln avenue, is vice-president of the Association of Arts and Industries which is giving a ball December 18, in the Gold room of the Congress hotel. Mrs. Affleck and Mrs. Clarence Hough are among the Winnetka patronesses.

The dance will be preceded by an elaborate pageant for which the Art institute will provide one of the groups under the supervision of Thomas Wood Stevens, director of the new Goodman theatre. The proceeds of the ball will go to aid the Arts and Industries society in its endeavors to establish an Industrial Art school.

O. William Lowrey of Asbury avenue attended the Notre Dame-Northwestern game last Saturday. He is the brother of the well-known "Tim" Lowrey, Northwestern university football captain.

Mrs. R. N. Puetz of 452 Sunset road entertained last Friday afternoon at a bridge party.

These big loop Butcher Shops certainly advertise cheap meats. But everytime I try to take advantage of them I waste more than it is worth in the time spent.

Cheap meats is right, Happy. You can't get something for nothing now-a-days. I find PETERS MARKET with their steady trade and small overhead and high quality meats can take care of my wants at prices that are always right. So will you if you trade there consistently.
