Winnetka Girl Wins Place on All-Star U.S. Hockey Team

Elizabeth Waidner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Waidner of Winnetka, was the only college girl to play on the American hockey team which met the Irish team at Boston, Mass., Saturday. Other members of the team were chosen from city teams.

Altho the Irish team won, 2 to 0, the American girls made an excellent showing considering that they have not been playing the game as long as their opponents.

Miss Waidner played on the forward line and won considerable favorable comment for her excellent playing. She is in her sophomore year down since 1913. at Smith college and has captained her class team for two years. She also played on the all-Chicago team in the fall of 1922.

Stolp Children to Give

"Why The Chimes Rang," a Christmas play, will be presented by the children of room 7C of the Byron C. Stolp school Thursday evening, December 17, at the school auditorium. The play will begin at 8 o'clock. It will be staged entirely by the children who have also made all stage settings and scenery. There will be a small admission charge and the proceeds will go to the poor and crippled children this Saturday evening when the Gray of the Fallon Public school of Chicago. All friends of the pupils are urged to attend the play which is expected to be an excellent performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Becker spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at the Crystal Country club. Mr. Becker left Friday for a short hunting trip down the Illinois river returning to Chicago Monday, and Mrs. Becker abroad. After visiting relatives in Engremained at Crystal lake.

High Cost o' Living? Electricity Goes Down

"There are a few fundamental facts regarding everyday affairs which should be more generally understood," reads the Public Utilities Bulletin. "Since 1913 the cost of living has gone up 65 per cent. This means that you are paying 65 per cent more for your clothes, groceries, meat and such monthly bills, than you were 12 years

"Contrast this with achievement of electric light and power industry the same years. Figures taken from Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor, show that the cost of electricity has actually gone

"Few other commodities or services, except insurance, can show such a record. The cost of government during this same period has in many instances doubled and trebled. One trembles to think what would have Xmas Play December 17 happened to electric light and power industry and insurance business if they had been owned by the government and the cost for these indispensable services had been increased in proportion to cost of government."

OPEN CAGE SEASON

The first Suburban league basketball game of the season will be held at New Trier high school gymnasium and Green squad meets the Austin five. The New Trier men are in great shape and are confident of scoring a victory over their opponents. The game will begin at 8 o'clock.

Miss Louisa Sanborn, formerly of Kenilworth, now of Lake Forest, has just returned from a five months' trip land, she spent two months in India.

GIFTS

FOR EVERYBODY

BIOGRAPHY, ETC.

BOOKS! Almost any wideawake American man or woman would like a copy of "Twenty-Five Years, 1892-1916," by Viscount Grey, England's great statesman. Then there's William E. Barton's "Life of Abraham Lincoln," best of all recent biographies of our martyred president. Has this older person whom you wish to remember at Christmas read "One Man's Life" by Herbert Quick? A most readable autobiography! Possibly he would enjoy Amy Lowell's "John Keats." If he is a doctor, or interested in unusual human beings, he will want to read "The Life of Sir William Osler" by Cushing. Why not give a book of travels? Like Chatfield-Taylor's "Cities of Many Men." He gives his memories of Paris, London, New York, and Chicago. Or "Roving Through Southern China" by that famous vagabond, Harry Franck. Or to turn to America, "The Aristocratic West' by Katharine Gerould. Tells about Salt Lake City, New Mexico and Reno. Like adventures? Give him Donald MacMillan's "Four Years in the White North."

FICTION

Everybody is fond of fiction. Here are half a dozen suggestions: Hugh Walpole's "Portrait of a Man with Red Hair." the author's most thrilling romance; Willa Cather's "Professor's House": Martha Ostenso's "Wild Geese," which won $13,500, probably the largest prize ever offered for a first novel; Christopher Morley's "Thunder on the Left"; Harry Wilson's "Cousin Jane"; Gilbert Parker's "The Power and the Glory"; Conrad's last novel, "Suspense," the story about Napoleon that Conrad for over twenty years had planned to write; Edwin Balmer's "That Royle Girl" (Balmer is one of your Evanston neighbors).

PROSE AND POETRY

And some books on religion. Dr. Harry Fosdick's "Twelve Tests of Character"; Bruce Barton's pen picture of Jesus;

Give Glasses Christmas Gifts

Glasses have always made an ideal Christmas gift, giving comfort and good vision to the recipient.

Those who regularly wear glasses will appreciate the gift of a new pair as much as any other gift you could select—and for those who have been hesitating having their eyes examined, who feel they are straining their eyes yet won't take the initial step to get relief, you will do them a real favor.

A Gift Certificate given at Xmas can be exchanged afterwards for a thorough examination and proper lenses and frame.

16 years of successful practise

Dr. O. H. Bersch, Optometrist

1177 Wilmette Ave. Wilmette Phone Wilmette 2766

Phone for an appointment 4725 Lincoln Ave. Chicago Phone Rav. 3469

Bishop Quayle's "A Book of Clouds." What about poetry? Amy Lowell's "What's O'Clock"; Vachel Lindsay's Collected Poems; the Collected Works of John Masefield; Edgar Guest's Book of Verse; Essays are welcomd by a select few. Robert Lynd's "The Peal of Bells"; Edgar Good-

FOR CHILDREN

speed's "Things Sen and Heard"; Newton's "The Greatest Book in the World."

Books for children? Lots of them. Scovill's "The Red Diamond"; "The Boy Scout's

Year Book"; Joseph Ames' "Clearport Boys"; Roy Snell's "Told Beneath the Northern Lights." So much for books for boys. For girls: "The Little Cockalorum Finds Romance"; "Hilda of the Green Smock"; "Peggy's Prize Cruise"; "A Prairie Rose." And very little boys and girls love books. "Old Mother Goose"; "Tommy Tucker's Stories"; "Twilight Storis" by Kate Douglas Wiggin and Nora Smith; "The Jungle Man and His Animals," illustrated by

We either have or can get you any of these books on very short notice

Sarg.

The Book Store

Alice McAllister Skinner

Winnetka 1101

724 Elm St.

WINNETKA