

Cadman Devotees to Hear Noted Artist in Concert Dec. 11

Charles Wakefield Cadman, the famous composer, will give a concert of his own compositions in the ball room of the Orrington hotel, Evanston, Friday evening, December 11, at 8:15 o'clock. The concert is given as a benefit for the scholarship fund of the Sigma chapter of the Mu Phi Epsilon sorority.

"It seems to be the fate of nearly every composer," reads a comment on the forthcoming concert, "to be known by one or two of his 'little things'—songs or piano pieces—even though he may have produced serious works in the larger forms which have won recognition by critics and serious-minded musicians. This is true of Mr. Cadman, who has written serious chamber music and the scores of several operas, together with many orchestral compositions.

"Yet the public at large knows him only as a composer of "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "At Dawning," songs made famous by Nordica, Bonci, McCormack, Gluck, Alda, Bispham and a score of other great artists."

Mr. Cadman will be assisted in this concert by Constance Eberhart, soprano, Madame Olk Roelk, cellist, and Mamie Cedargren Jernberg, violinist. This is the only public appearance of Mr. Cadman in Chicago and vicinity this season.

North Shore Line Band to Produce Comic Opera

"The Captain of Plymouth," a comic opera with 75 people in the cast, is to be presented by the North Shore Line band Friday evening, December 4, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Elm Place school auditorium, Highland Park.

Rehearsals for the production have been in progress for more than a month. Costuming is to be elaborate and there will be a special scenic and lighting effects.
