

Promotes Dance

Evelyn Pardee Woods is chairman of the social committee of the Glencoe Juniors. She is in charge of the tickets for the Homecoming dance which will be held Monday evening, December 21, in the roof ballroom of the Orrington hotel. This dance is being arranged in honor of those who are away at school, and is given on the first night of their Christmas vacation, and is given as a benefit for a nutrition clinic to be established at the Mary Crane station at Hull House for children from 2 to 6 years of age. The Barbary Coast orchestra will provide the music.

TO GIVE TEA

Mrs. Hathaway Watson of 900 Sunset road, is having a tea Tuesday, December 8, from 4 to 6 o'clock, to welcome Mrs. Malcolm Thomas as a new Winnetka resident. Mrs. Thomas has recently moved here from St. Louis and makes her home at 800 Rosewood avenue.

TEA INVITATIONS OUT

Mrs. George R. Benson, 210 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, and Mrs. Oscar Torrison of Chicago have issued invitations for a tea next Tuesday afternoon to meet Mrs. Oswald Torrison.

Mrs. Enos M. Barton, 978 Euclid avenue, entertained 25 guests at tea a week ago Sunday for her son, Malcolm Barton, who is studying law at University of Chicago this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lloyd Zipf, 575 Arbor Vitae road, announce the birth of a daughter, Grace, Saturday, November 28.

The North Shore Chamber Music association is presenting the Elschuco trio at the Kenilworth Assembly hall Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

Snug Winter Storage for Your Car

HERE'S an organization devoted exclusively to caring for your automobile during the months you do not drive. And a building specifically designed and used for motor car storage only.

You'll find this service far more satisfactory than "dead storage" in a public garage or "laying up" in a cold private garage. If you own more than one car, it's an economy to store your larger car until spring.
