North Shore Musical Society Enjoys Beautiful Program at Simpson Residence in Winnetka November 30

The North Shore Musical society held its monthly meeting Monday, November 30, at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Orval Simpson, 865 Auburn road, Winnetka. Assisting Mrs. Simpson as hostesses were: Mrs. Winifred Townsend Cree and Mrs. Helen Stewart. Mrs. Cree was in charge of the program.

The program, an oriental one, was beautifully carried out in every detail and enthusiastically received by the club members and guests. Two items of interest deserve special mention; first, Miss Estelle Swigart 'cellist, who has since been unanimously voted into the club as a member, and who is to be guest-artist with the Symphony Players of Chicago in their March concert at New Trier high school, was guest artist on the program; second, a new member, Mrs. Alvene Resseguie, contralto, made her first appearance this season. Mrs. Resseguie, whose rich, beautiful voice is well known throughout Chicago, is to be the artist on the Lyon and Healy artist concerts to be given during the week of December 14, from 2 until 3 o'clock.
