

INDIAN HILL FROLICS

Improvement Association is Host to Radio Staff of WHT; Business Session is Followed by Session of Fun

Eleven artists from Radio station WHT, located on the Wrigley building in Chicago, came out to the meeting of the Indian Hill Improvement association held at the New Trier high school mess hall, and gave the assembled members of the organization the "time of their lives."

The artists who performed were the Three Musketeers, Hill, Hirsch and Goring; Edwin Kemp, dramatic tenor; Lillian Knowles, concert contralto, and soloist at the Second Presbyterian church in Chicago; Cecil and Esther Ward, the Hawaiian team; Oscar Hether, assistant announcer at station WHT; Helen Rauh, concert pianist, and staff accompanist at WHT; John Clark, baritone, program director at WHT; and Frances Fromme, violinist, a pupil of Richard Czerwonky.

Preceding the program by the radio artists there was a short business meeting of the Improvement association. The matter of securing additional train service was referred to a committee and there was a discussion regarding an ice skating rink at the Indian Hill station park and of the congested condition of Winnetka avenue at the Indian Hill electric station.

After this the meeting was put in charge of Mr. Clark, the program director of WHT and the fun began. Everyone of the artists was enthusiastically received and each was forced to give several encores. Following the program there was dancing and refreshments, in both of which the radio folk shared. Members of the association were enthusiastic over the success of the evening and expressed their gratitude to the guests for their contributions.
