

Holiday Calendar for Young Folk Favors Dancing

With Christmas tide rapidly approaching, holiday plans are rapidly being made for the pleasure of the young people, for that is their season. Already invitations have been issued for several dances that will include boys and girls from all along the north shore. The first of these occurs the evening of December 22, when Hazel and Burton Cooley will entertain at their home, "The Log House" on Scott avenue in Hubbard Woods. The host is returning from Culver Military Academy December 19.

The same evening, a group of Roycemore girls, Virginia Woodland, Barbara Cook, Helen Depue, Mary Day, Carolyn Haugan, Carolyn Olson, and Virginia Prussing, will give a dance at the Evanston Country club.

The following night, Virginia Marshall, Frances Oleson, Alice Van Arsdell, and Helen Southward, all of Kenilworth, will give a dance at the Kenilworth club.

Pauline Billow, Eleanor Burk, Helen Fraser, Grace Glennon, Ruth Mearns, Vera May Ogan, Elizabeth Sweet, Cora Lee Whitsett, and Anna Margaret Kennedy will be hostesses December 24, at the Kenilworth club.

Betty Marshall, Frances Levi, Elizabeth Babcock, Eleanor Thrall, Dorothy Lawrence, Mary Marble, Betty Webster, Naomi McDowell are giving a dance at the Ouilmette Country club December 28.

The following evening, Jack Reasner, Walter Neubacher, George Hughes, Clifford Schwartz, Phillip Brown, Donald Magill, Bruce Hulbert, and Judson Thompson will be hosts at a dance at the Kenilworth club.

Navigato to Conduct Class in Poster Art

The Studio School of Art, 307 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, announces that it has secured the services of Rocco D. Navigato to conduct a class in poster art on Thursdays and Saturdays. Mr. Navigato has served as art director and promotion artist for nationally known advertising agencies for a number of years. He has also designed many posters for transportation companies in Chicago and vicinity. One of his most recently completed posters is that of the Chicago Temple building.
