

Which Pile of Dollars Will You Choose?

IMAGINE two piles of dollars. One is a small pile accumulated by chance. The other is a tall stack made possible by systematic saving.

Which pile would you choose for your Christmas shopping? The tall stack of money is yours for next Christmas if you join our 1926 Christmas Savings Club now.

And it will grow just as tall as you decide to make it—you select the plan of saving which will provide exactly the right amount to take care of your needs.

Thousands are assuring themselves a merry Christmas in 1926 now. Our Christmas Club will make it merry for you, too!

LEE SAYS:

A LITTLE girl came INTO our store yesterday AND she wanted to buy HER mother a Christmas PRESENT and she asked ME if we had anything REAL nice for EIGHTY cents and right AWAY I suggested a box of RANFT'S candy—that SUGGESTION suited her EXACTLY and she left THE store with the BOX under her arm AND I know how well PLEASED her mother WILL be when she gets THAT box of RANFT'S candy—all of WHICH leads me to say THAT we have RANFT'S CANDY in five sizes ALL dolled up in CHRISTMAS clothes ready TO go out to your house. THEY are simply DELICIOUS, in fact MANY say its the best CANDY they ever tasted AND I thought perhaps SOMEBODY at your house MIGHT want to follow THAT little girl's example.
