

Winnetka-Wilmette
Rotarians Enjoy
Joint Yule Party

Winnetka Rotary club will be host to members of the Wilmette Rotary club at luncheon Wednesday noon, December 30, at Community House. A program appropriate to the New Year spirit will be given under direction of the local club.

Wednesday of this week the Winnetka Rotarians were guests at a Christmas party staged by the Wilmette Rotary club at the Ouilmette Country club. Santa Claus was there in style and every man at the party came away with a gift—most of the contributions quite significant of the business or profession represented by the recipient. This held true in general although in some instances gifts went by opposites, so to speak.

One of the most interesting presentations of the day was the gift of six toy policemen to H. L. Woolhiser, Winnetka village manager, the gift was accompanied by the inscription: "Here are some new bluecoats—Herb. They wear tin stars but are straight." The display of the gift brought a round of applause among the Rotarians.

New Policemen Receive
First Instruction Talk

New members of the Winnetka police department received their first instruction in marksmanship from Chief W. M. Peterson last Saturday. The chief expressed himself as very much pleased with the showing they made. They were also instructed in various other matters pertaining to the police department, including discipline, vigilance at night while on duty, criticism of other members of the department, smoking while in uniform and other regulations. Further instructions are to be given later.

Hugo Layer has just returned to his home, 436 Linden avenue, after a stay of seven months in California.

North Shore Rotarians Hold New Year Luncheon

Members of the Winnetka Rotary club will be hosts to the Wilmette Rotarians Wednesday noon, December 30, at the club's regular luncheon at Community House. The program will be appropriate to the New Year season.

Wednesday of this week the Winnetka Rotarians were guests of the Wilmette club at a Christmas party in the Ouilmette Country club. Santa Claus was in attendance and the exchange of gifts was both interesting and highly entertaining.

Next Wednesday's meeting will replace the regular Friday luncheon.

The Skokie Subscription dance club is giving a dinner-dance Saturday evening, December 26, at the Winnetka Woman's club.
