Radio Program Broadcast Recently Delights Children

Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett of 821 Foxdale avenue broadcast a Christmas program from the Daily News station, WMAQ, December 22, at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Bartlett opened her program by telling the German legend of the Christ Child, following it with a group of short stories which she sang. Mrs. Arthur Byfield sang some of Mrs. Bartlett's compositions and was accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Orcutt. Mrs. Bartlett closed the program by giving "Twas the Night Before Christmas" set to music of her own composition.

"God," Christian Science Lesson-Sermon January 3

The lesson sermon at First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday morning, January 3, will be "God."

Services are held in the Masonic temple at 708 Elm street, at 11 o'clock, and the testimonial meeting is held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Sunday school convenes at 9:35 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Goodrick, 1050 Tower road, are having a pleasant family reunion. They entertained 14 at Christmas dinner. Their sons and families from Danville and Springfield, Ill., are with them, also their daughter, Mrs. George Massey and her family, from Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Daniel Tilden Hoskin of Champaign, Ill., is spending the holiday week with her sister, Mrs. John L. McKeown, 588 Arbor Vitae road.

Henry Leach, 883 Cherry street, left recently for Florida. He will be away several weeks.

Hockeyites Open Schedule Sunday; Stage Game Here

Hockey will make its bow before winter sport fans Sunday when the North Shore Hockey league opens its schedule with two games.

Indian Hill will be the scene of the tilt between Evanston and Indian Hill and the other engagement will be played at Exmoor with Lake Forest and Highland Park providing the competition. All games of Exmoor, Evanston and Indian Hill will be played at 10:45 a. m. and at Lake Forest at 3 p. m.

Prospects for one of the best seasons since the league was organized eight years ago are seen by officials of the league. Efforts to balance the four teams so that they will be as evenly matched as possible have been made.

The Indian Hill club was winner of the championship last season and plans to make a strong bid for first place again this year. The team is captained by Fred Copeland and has a number of prominent college stars in its lineup.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robert Green and their two daughters, 791 Walden road, leave Sunday for Los Angeles and other interesting points. They will be away seven weeks, and shortly after their return, they will move into the house on Fuller lane which they purchased recently from the Frank G. Kanes.

Seniors of St. Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind., gave a formal dance for the benefit of the college building fund at the Edgewater Beach hotel Monday evening, December 28. A large number of Winnetka members of the St. Mary's alumnae association aided in making the affair a success.

Window Wisdom

A cracked window pane, or a loose one will let in enough cold air to cost more than its worth in fuel. If your windows or doors need attention have our man putty them in right and tight and put in new glass where needed.
