Monroe Portlock, 70 years old, who lives in a garage in the 400 block on Chestnut street, committed suicide on the last day of 1925 by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. Portlock, who was a laborer, had formerly worked for the Village. He had been ill for some time and had been in the hospital for a while. His action was laid to despondency over ill health. His home was in Iowa.
