Sullivan Speed Verdict Reversed by McGoorty

Judge John P. McGoorty of the Chicago Criminal court last week reversed a former decision sustaining the fine imposed on Dennis E. Sullivan Jr., son of Judge Sullivan, by Police Magistrate Ralph E. Sinsheimer of Winnetka last summer. Young Sullivan was arrested by former Sergt. John Iverson early one morning charged with speeding. He asserted that he thought the officers were bandits and put on speed to elude them. In the appealed case before Judge McGoorty Sullivan was represented by his father. The fine was returned, with the consent of Village President John S. Miller.

The next meeting of the Lincoln Avenue circle will be held Tuesday, January 12, at the home of Mrs. John R. Montgomery, 15 Green Bay road, Hubbard Woods. Sewing will begin at 10:30 and a large attendance is urgently requested for beginning the New Year. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

The East Elm Street circle will meet at the home of Mrs. John C. Cobb, 615 Elm street, Tuesday, January 12, at 2 p. m. Mrs. P. E. Conner, Mrs. A. E. Peirce and Mrs. W. H. Rose will be assisting hostesses.
