

Indian Hill Plans Winter Sports for Month of January

The committee in charge of the winter sports activities at the Indian Hill club announces the following coming events:

Saturday, January 9, regular dinner-dance at the club at 7:30 o'clock.

Tuesday, January 12, the members are invited to outdoor sports consisting of skating and tobogganing to be followed at 9 o'clock by dancing in the club-house in sports clothes, with a buffet supper to be served at 11 o'clock. Provided the elements are favorable, this promises to be an interesting evening. In any case, there will be dancing whether or not tobogganing or skating can be indulged in.

Saturday, January 30, the adults will have their annual masquerade on the ice, the grand march starting at 2:30. This will be followed by races and other events, for which prizes will be awarded. There will also be prizes for the most unique costumes.

Saturday, January 30, the adults will have their turn at masquerading on the ice for on that evening, there will be skating and tobogganing in costume, followed by dancing in the club house and a buffet supper to wind up the evening.

PLAYS FOR RADIO

North shore radio listeners will have an opportunity to hear one of their own neighbors Friday evening, January 15, at 9:40 o'clock when Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt, will broadcast a group of piano selections from WMAQ located on the LaSalle hotel.

Mrs. A. J. Mitchell and son, Donald, 263 Woodlawn avenue, are leaving January 10 for Yakima, Wash., to visit her mother.

Hockey League Stages Second Round Sunday

The second round of play in the North Shore Hockey league will be staged Sunday, January 10, if the weather man is kind and freezes up the rinks. Evanston is scheduled to meet Lake Forest and Indian Hill will clash with Highland Park.

In the opening games held last Sunday, Indian Hill won over Evanston by a score of 4 to 1. Lake Forest scored a 3-to-0 victory over Highland Park in the other clash.

Playing conditions were poor, both games being played in a drizzling rain. The ice was soft and did not permit the players to show their best game.

CHARLESTON AT CLUB

Another surprise is in store for the members of the North Shore Dance club. The management has been fortunate in being able to secure some very unusual professional talent to give a demonstration of the Charleston at the next regular dancing party which is taking place at the Winnetka Masonic temple, Saturday evening, January 9.

The auditing committee of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league met at the home of Mrs. David Hallinan, 1050 Spruce street, Wednesday, January 6, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of making the semi-audit of the club's books.

Miss Veda Henry of the faculty of the Columbia School of Music, who spent the holiday season at her home in Buffalo, returned this week to resume her work at the college.

Mrs. E. Irving Belote, 1136 Oak street, was hostess at luncheon and six tables of bridge December 30. Mrs. W. E. Orr of Calumet City, Ill., was her out of town guest.
