Blow Torches

A blow torch in the house will enable you to thaw a pipe before it cracks and often save more than its cost. They are handy in many ways.

Pipe Wrenches

A pipe wrench is another handy home tool. We have them in the simple pipe wrench, also combination wrenches with cutter, and with jaws for loosening unions.

Firemen Stop Blaze in Albert Pick Residence

Fire said to have been caused by an overheated oil burner called Winnetka firemen to the garage of Albert Pick, at 445 Sheridan road, last Tuesday. The blaze was confined to the oil on the floor in the boiler room, and no damage was done to the building, it was said. In spite of the recent cold weather, there have been very few fires in the village.

ON WINTER VACATION LIST

Mrs. Richard M. Walsh of 1170 Scott avenue, has rented her home for a period of two months to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mahoney, for many years residents of Hubbard Woods. Mrs. Walsh and her father leave Tuesday for a visit with her brother in Superior, Wis., prior to a trip to the Southland, and Miss Judith Walsh departs Monday for a visit with a school friend in California.

Big Sports Program at Indian Hill January 30

At 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, January 30, the children of the Indian Hill club will have their annual ice masquerade. Exactly on the hour named above the grand march will begin. After the march will come races and other equally interesting events, giving of prizes forming an important feature. Prizes will be awarded to those showing the most surprising and unique costumes.

In the evening of that day the adults will have their time at the sports, the program including skating, tobogganing, and, later on, dancing in the club house. A buffet supper will conclude the activities. There will be competition in the various events, the participants being in masquerade garb.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dana McCullough (Harriet Plowman), who were married December 21, in Christ church, returned from their honeymoon in Michigan, and were the guests of Mrs. McCullough's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plowman, of Linden avenue, for a short time last week. They are now in the East, in their new domicile in New Haven, where Mr. McCullough is completing his college course at Yale. He receives his degree in June.

BETROTHED TO WINNETKAN

At a luncheon and bridge party for 32 guests given recently at the Sovereign hotel, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Angeluia Doris Koenig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koenig of Wilmette to Seward F. McKenney, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Seward F. McKenney of 752 Foxdale avenue. No date has been set as yet for the wedding. Miss Koenig is a graduate of St. Mary of the Woods college, Notre Dame.
