EDITOR GIVES TALK

Members of the Chicago Historical society and their friends met January 13, at 8 o'clock, in the rooms of the society, 632 North Dearborn street, to hear an address on "The Path of the French Empire" by Harry Hansen of 260 Fairview avenue, Winnetka, who is literary editor of the Chicago Daily News. Mr. Hansen has made an intensive study of the French colonial period. He made a trip to southern Illinois last summer in order to study the old French towns of Prairie du Rocher, Cahokia, and St. Genevieve, in which are the last vestiges of the French regime in the Middle West.

January Meeting of High School P. T. A. Taken Off Schedule

The date scheduled for the next New Trier Parent-Teacher association is January 22, but it has been decided to omit this date on account of the change in the nature of the P. T. A. programs in the fall. The next Parent-Teacher association meeting is scheduled for April 16, and this will be a meeting for parents of all New Trier students, it is explained. On this occasion it is planned to secure some outstanding educational speaker to talk to parents about some of the more general problems in connection with school work.

New Trier Cage Squads to Meet Oak Park Fives

Both the lightweight and heavy-weight basketball teams of New Trier High school will play Oak Park squads at the New Trier gymnasium Saturday evening, January 16. The games will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Oak Park is rated as a very strong contender for the championship this year, having beaten Proviso by a lead of 40 points recently, and the games are expected to be among the fastest of the season, as New Trier has also shown remarkable strength.

The Elm street circle of Sacred Heart church will have a card party Wednesday, January 20, at 2 o'clock, at Sacred Heart hall, Hubbard Woods. Mrs. John Busscher will be hostess for the affair for which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Feddersen, Jr., of 945 Elm street, have returned after a three months' visit in Racine where Mr. Feddersen underwent a serious operation.
