Social Welfare to Be Chicago Forum Topic January 17

The Chicago Forum will make another endeavor for understanding and good will Sunday, January 17, at its meeting in the Olympic theatre, Fred A. Moore, director, announced today. The meeting will be devoted to a presentation of the program for social welfare and human betterment as adopted by the official bodies of Catholics, Jews and Protestants. The speakers will be the Rev. J. W. R. Maguire, professor of sociology, St. Viator's college, Bourbonnais, Ill., a courageous, forward-looking Catholic priest; Rabbi Gerson B. Levi of the temple, one of the ablest Jewish leaders in Chicago and a worthy representative of the Central Conference of American Rabbis; the Rev. Hubert C. Herring of Boston, social service secretary of the Congregational churches and dynamic leader of social thought and action among the Protestant churches. There will be plenty of time for a searching question period, it is promised.

The Chicago Forum Council, under whose auspices the Forum is conducted, is a non-partisan and non-sectarian group of citizens representing the major social, economic and racial groups in Chicago and its suburbs. It considers this meeting as an opportunity for religionists to get a better understanding of each other and for non-religionists to get an unusual interpretation of religious forces.

Mrs. George B. Fyfe of 1365 Scott avenue entertained the Sterling club at luncheon and bridge January 8. The Sterling club recently celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary when its members were entertained by Mrs. T. B. Potter of Wilmette.
