

Winnetka Woman's Club Is Offering Two Fine Programs

Prof. James Weber Linn, head of the English department of the University of Chicago, will speak at the Winnetka Woman's club Tuesday, January 19. His subject is, "Some Current Biographers, True and Imaginary."

This meeting is in charge of the art and literature department, Mrs. S. George Levy, chairman.

The music department of the Winnetka Woman's club, Mrs. Everett L. Harris, chairman, announces for the program on January 26, Burton Thatcher, baritone; William Beller, pianist, using the Steinway Duo-Art.

Mr. Thatcher has an unusually beautiful voice, cultivated by untiring effort, and directed by sound musicianship. He has filled more important oratorio and symphony orchestra engagements than probably any other baritone in the West. He has appeared with the Chicago Symphony orchestra in Chicago twice, and on four ten times, with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, four times, and the St. Louis Symphony, nine times. He has also appeared with the North Shore Festival five times, as soloist with the Apollo club, Chicago.

Mr. Beller has the combination of youth and personality, only experience is necessary to make the prophecies of the critics a reality. In 1921, he won the Mason and Hamlin Piano prize, and in June 1925, the national prize in the biennial contest conducted by the National Federation of Music clubs at Portland, Ore., in which hundreds of young American artists competed.

On Tuesday, January 12, the Ash and Cherry Street circles held a joint meeting at Community House. A very pleasant program was planned and a dainty luncheon served.

SPEAKS AT BANQUET

George R. Benson, 210 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, was one of the speakers on the program at the Palmer House last Friday night at a banquet which was given by 150 friends and business associates of Soren T. Corydon, prominent north side business man, who recently was elevated to the Knighthood of Dennebrog by the Danish government as a reward for his relief activities in behalf of the people of Schleswig during the World War. Consul General R. Bauman, George Rasmussen, and Dr. A. Dorf were also on the program.

LUNCHEON FOR BRIDE

Mrs. James Prindiville will be hostess at luncheon and bridge Monday, January 18, at her home, 151 Euclid avenue, in honor of Miss Margaret Mercer of Winnetka, whose marriage takes place Saturday, January 23.
