

Miss Buckingham to Entertain Guests for Winifred Smith

Miss Kate Buckingham, cousin of Mrs. John Metcalf of Linden avenue, also niece of John Buckingham, has taken over the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman theatre for the evening of January 20. In honor of Winifred Smith, debutante daughter of Walter B. Smith, a special performance of "The Romantic Lady" will be given.

Miss Buckingham will be given not only the young friends of Miss Smith, but old time friends of her own, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Byron Smith, and there will be a large company of Winnetkans present.

Miss Buckingham is just now engaged with the building of a great fountain in Grant Park as a memorial to her brother, the late Clarence Buckingham, who contributed so generously to the development of the Art Institute.

VASSAR HOUSE TO OPEN

A group of clever Vassar girls are opening Vassar House, a restaurant on Erie street, just east of Michigan avenue, to the profits from which are devoted to answering the calls Vassar makes on its alumnae. Mrs. Howard Linn is in charge of the decorating of the rooms in a most alluring gay colored, French peasant style. On the board of directors and among those living on the north shore, who are deeply interested are Mrs. W. Dow Harvey, Mrs. Arthur Wakeley, Ralph Harwick, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, and Mrs. Donald Jeffris.

YOUNG ARTISTS COMPETE

The annual contest for young artists conducted by the Society of American Musicians with the cooperation of the Orchestra association, is announced by Howard Wells, director, for Sunday afternoon, January 17, at Orchestra hall at 2 o'clock. Two violinists, three pianists, three female, and four male singers will compete for appearance with the Chicago Symphony orchestra as soloists at the popular concerts next season.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Ralph E. Sinsheimer, under oath, states that he is not related by blood or marriage to any member of the Winnetka police department who was removed after the recent investigation, nor is he related by blood or marriage to any Cook County Constable, and has no relatives on the Police Department.
