In Scoutdom

The Boy Scout meetings on January 15 of Troop 1, 2 and 3, held some interesting features. Mr. Mills, Scoutmaster of Troop 3, had a friend give a talk on the habits of the animals, after which the different patrols are named. His knowledge of animals and his skill in imitating their calls furnished a delightful and instructive evening and one that will long be remembered by the Scouts.

Troop 1 held an intra-troop contest in Knot-tying and the O'Grady drill down. After troop 2 had completed the usual business, all the Scouts met in the gymnasium for 30 minutes and after some lively games were played, the troops dismissed.

At the meeting of January 22, the Summertime Ward-Stephens | Scouts of Troop 3 devoted the entire evening to work on the Scout poles, Scriabin under the instruction of Mr. Mills and Scoutmaster of Troop 2 gave instruction in Scout work. Afterwards a knot-tying contest was held for the benefit of those who need practice.

> Troop 1 had intra-troop contests in signalling and first-aid bandaging. They held a short session in the gymnasium for the usual period of fun.

> For the benefit of the Scouts who wish to pass tests, there will be a meetg of the Scout Council this Friday, January 29.

Theatre Guild Readings Will Resume in a Series

In response to many requests, the readings which have been given by Winnetka members of the North Shore Theatre Guild for the past two years, will be resumed in a series for the remainder of the season.

The first meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barber, 1214 Scott avenue, Tuesday evening, February 23. The play to be read will be "John Ferguson" by St. John Ervine.

Further notice will be sent to all Winnetka members of the Theatre Guild.

TALKS ON RECREATION

A joint meeting of the parents of the first, second and third grades was held last week, Tuesday evening, at the North Shore Country Day school. Miss Wannamaker, recreational director of the Institute for Juvenile Research, of Chicago, addressed the meeting on the importance of recreation for children from six to nine years old.

Mrs. H. C. Bayless of 786 Locust road entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rowen of Chicago over the week-end.
