

Always make a good impression!—

A man whose clothes are spotlessly clean and neatly pressed always makes a good impression. If his garments are always in their best condition, he will be welcomed everywhere.

Call us up—Wil. 320— and we will see to it that your suits are free from spots and wrinkles ready to wear when you want them.

Mr. Nord has just returned from the Cutters' and Designers' Convention at New Orleans. He brings with him lots of brand new ideas on styles and fabrics.

... We have now on our shelves a fine showing of the latest woollens.

Camp Fire Embers

The "Tatapochon Group" held a ceremonial at which honors were awarded January 14. Two weeks ago this group had an enjoyable hike, and with the assistance of their guardian, Vivian Ratcliffe, are making maps showing the territory they covered.

One other ceremonial was held January 21, and that by the "Itansicket Group." Honors were awarded at the same time.

Last Thursday afternoon during the general assembly of Camp Fire a knot-tying contest was held. Rae Mayer of the "Tatapochon" Group was the victor.

The "Takantahi Group" (Mrs. Eisenbrand, guardian) gave a tea two weeks ago to greet their new members and on Thursday, January 28, held a ceremonial to formally accept them into the group. They are planning a supper on Friday, February 5, when the girls will work for some of their honors in cooking and serving.

Last week the Un-ta-lu-ti group, Mrs. Marshall, guardian, challenged the Litanni group, (Miss Spangler's group) to a knot-tying contest at assembly of Camp Fire on January 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. O'Brien of 630 Blackthorne road are leaving February 5 for a three weeks' trip south. They expect to spend most of the time in Palm Beach, Fla.

Birthday Luncheon, a Play are Features of Society Meeting

"A birthday luncheon and a play," reads the announcement of the Woman's society for their all-day meeting Wednesday, February 3. Then comes the following rhyme:

"We need your presence, yes, indeed,
To celebrate with pep and speed
Our Birthdays all, in gaiety
From pastors down to laity.

"Bring pennies bright for every year
An if detection you should fear
Like some who care not to confess
Bring more, and none will ever guess!"

A gala day indeed! Mrs. Roswell Mason will read a story during the morning, the luncheon will be unique, and following it, will come a play under the auspices of the Community Drama club, "The China Pig," by Emily Ewig. Mrs. Louis A. Sherman is director, and the cast comprises Mrs. Sherman Goble, Mrs. Clarence Happ, Miss Katharine Shaw.

The luncheon will be served as usual at 12:15 at the usual rate, plus the birthday money.

Not having made provision for a very impelling opportunity presented to them through the work of Mr. and Mrs. Wolsted, the society is thus combining both fun and profit, to respond to this special chance to provide a school for the native children where the Wolsteds are located at Mariamadura, India.
