It's Ho! for the Outdoor Life When Winter Sports Call to You

When the ice is as hard as a crystal and myriad, magic, snowflakes float through the air, that's when the Skating Derby and the whole outdoors is calling to winter sports lovers. You may skate, you may ski, play in the snow or hike through the woods, but come out where you can breathe deep draughts of invigorating freshness; where you can indulge in exhilarating pastimes.

But before you start, let Rosenberg's Sportswear Section outfit you in sturdy warm clothes, as sporty and as smart as they can be.

Park Ridge School Honors Memory of Mrs. Wm. Linn

The Park Ridge school for girls held an appreciation meeting Monday in memory of Mrs. William R. Linn, at the Chicago Woman's club. Mrs. Linn served that widely known school as president for many years, and was identified with work for girls throughout the city.

Mrs. J. Russell Adams, first vice-president of the school presided. Mrs. Harold Ickes of Hubbard Woods, president of the Chicago Woman's club, gave a beautiful tribute. Miss Clara Guilber, president of the Fortnightly, Judge Arnold of the Juvenile court, and others, spoke. Children of the Park Ridge school sang.

Mrs. Joseph Otis, Jr., 608 Elm street, and her children left last Tuesday for a several months' holiday at Pass Christian, their winter home. They will remain there until mid-May or June. Mr. Otis will join his family shortly for a visit of a few weeks.

Sunday Club News

(Contributed)

Did you know that Robert Burns had a birthday last week? Do you really know the true side of Burns the poet? Then you surely should have been at the club meeting last Sunday evening. Mr. Canning could have given you much to think about to say nothing of the information that you lack about the subject. You would have enjoyed Mr. Brown's rendition of some Scotch songs, too.

Just why did you miss that meeting? Well, never mind don't miss the next one for it will be equally as interesting.

Miss Agnes Mestor is to talk on Women in Industry. There is undoubtedly going to be a lively discussion afterwards so be prepared to enter in with some questions and ideas.

Also prepare ahead for the meeting to follow on the next Sunday. The topic is similar. Miss Lillian Herstein is presenting a talk on Education for Industrial Workers.

Supper is always served at 6:30. You will find some jolly company and a bright fire in the Camp Fire room at that time.
