

Profits in Silver Foxes

Cut of F. M. Johnson's five daughters holding 10 Silver Fox puppies born in one litter from a pair of Lea Silver Foxes.

The United States Government endorses the Silver Black Fox industry.

The Silver Black Fox is the highest priced fur-bearing animal in the world and its fur is the only known fur that cannot be imitated. These two facts have made the Silver Black Fox fur the Standard of fur excellence.

Both price and demand for Silver Fox furs has been constantly increasing for the past 200 years. There are not enough Silver Foxes in the United States today to supply Chicago alone.

We are now operating a ranch at Glenview, Ill., just twenty miles from the Loop where we will ranch your foxes for you, insure them with full coverage against theft, escape or death and the purchaser will receive his returns annually from the young foxes born. Invariably the individual who purchases a pair of Silver Foxes finds that the return in real money exceeds the amount earned from their regular vocation.

This is a proven business in which your success and yearly income are guaranteed by nature.
