Tea House Sponsor

Mrs. Donald Jeffris is one of a group of Winnetka women who are interested in the success of Vassar House, a new tea shop in Chicago, proceeds from which will be directed into Vassar college funds.

Give Indian Hill Club Carnival This Evening

An Adult Masquerade carnival will be held at the Indian Hill club on Saturday evening, January 30. There will be skating from 8 until 10 o'clock, dancing from 10 until 12, and supper will be served at 11 o'clock.

There will be a band and special skating features on the pond. The University Banjo Club orchestra will furnish the music at the club house.

LUNCHEON PATRONESS

Mrs. Hollis Gleason, Jr., of Wilmette, was one of the patronesses for the first of a series of pre-Lenten bridge teas given by the Villa-de-Chautal Alumnae association of the north shore and Chicago, Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Wightman of Evanston. Early in February, Dr. and Mrs. George Mueller of Chicago will give the use of their home for another of these large teas.

Harry Hansen of 260 Fairview avenue, a member of the library staff of the Chicago Daily News, was guest of honor at a dinner at the Auditorium hotel Friday, January 29, by the Poetry Lovers of America.

Mrs. C. A. Aldrich of 1189 Oakley avenue is spending a few weeks in Fairhope, Ala. Mrs. Aldrich has not been very well for sometime and the southern climate is greatly benefiting her.

Mrs. Arthur B. Collins and her infant son, William Francis Collins, II, are returning to their home at 655 Garland avenue Sunday, from the Evanston hospital where the baby was born January 17.

Arthur Dean Bonnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bonnett of 614 Cherry street, will entertain a group of his little friends at a sleigh ride Tuesday in celebration of his seventh birthday.

The Walden Road Neighborhood Bridge club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Masters of 851 Ash street, Wednesday, February 3, at 8 o'clock.

TEACHERS GO COASTING

The teachers of the Winnetka Public school were most delightfully entertained Wednesday evening, at a coasting party sponsored by Mrs. Walter L. Fisher, of 1060 Sheridan road, president of the Winnetka Parent-Teacher association. Following an hour or two of coasting on Hubbard hill, the guests enjoyed hot coffee and doughnuts served at the home of Mrs. Fisher.

SPEND MONTH IN WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Vic. J. Killian, 1348 Edgewood lane, left this week for a stay of several weeks in California. They plan to return about the first of March, it is said.

Foot Troubles

Foot troubles begin in childhood and develop later in life. Happy children must have happy feet. Bring their shoes to us and we'll keep the smiles on the kiddies faces.
