

WINNETKA TALK

Speaks of Russia

Miss Anna Louise Strong, lecturer, writer, and expert on child welfare work, fresh from four years spent in Russia and the Orient, will speak on Russia before the Evening club of Winnetka next Wednesday evening, February 10. Miss Strong is a graduate of Oberlin and Chicago university and is at the present time "guardian" of several children's farm schools in Russia. She recently spoke before a large audience of educators and business men in Japan. Rabbi Harvey E. Wessel of the North Shore Congregation was instrumental in securing Miss Strong for the benefit of north shore residents.
