

ATTEND CONFERENCE

"Our Relations With Latin America" to Be Subject of Chicago Session of League of Women Voters

A conference on "Our Relations with Latin America" has been arranged by the Illinois League of Women Voters Forum for Saturday, February 13, at the Congress hotel. Many members of the Winnetka League of Women Voters are planning to take advantage of the unusual opportunity this conference offers.

Miss Lydia M. Schmidt will preside at the morning session and Miss Jane Addams at the afternoon meeting. The program includes several speakers of national reputation. Tickets at a nominal fee may be purchased at the door, it is announced.

The conference program will be briefly as follows:

11 A. M. "The Pan American Movement and its Difficulties"—J. Fred Rippey, associate professor of History, University of Chicago.

"Suggestions for a Constructive Foreign Policy"—Samuel Guy Inman, instructor in International Relations at Columbia university and secretary of the Committee on Cooperation in Latin America.

2 P. M. "Investment in Latin America"—Walter Lichtenstein, First National Bank, Chicago. "Political Significance of American Investments in Latin America"—Jacob Viner, Professor of Political Economy, University of Chicago. "The Proposed Conference of Jurists to be held at Rio de Janeiro"—Jesse S. Reeves, Department of Political Science, University of Michigan.

STUDY INDIAN MODES

In one of the morning exercises at the North Shore Country Day school, this week, the second grade gave a full report of what they had observed at the Field Museum and since studied concerning certain customs and modes of life of the Indians, particularly of the South-western Hopi tribes.

ADDRESSES MEETING

On Monday evening, February 1, Carleton Washburne addressed a large gathering at the Hubbard Woods school on the "Underlying Principles of the Winnetka Schools." Miss Ruth Tracy played a group of four pieces on the piano. Everyone felt that the meeting was most successful!

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Littlefield and daughter, Joan, 546 Elm street, left for New York on January 31. They will be away about two weeks.

The Desire to Be Helpful

Dominating every department of the Winnetka State Bank is the sincere desire—backed by genuine endeavor—to be of every possible service to our patrons.

Every facility and every service has been planned for the use and convenience of Winnetka people, and we are confident of our ability to meet the needs of this growing community.
