Young People Much Feted Before Their Wedding Next Week

Miss Isabel Williamson, whose marriage to Lewis Andrew Day will take place Saturday afternoon, February 13, at 4:30 o'clock, in the Church of the Ascension, is being entertained extensively at pre-nuptial affairs given by her many friends.

Miss Evelyn Randall of Evanston, one of the bridal attendants, gave a luncheon and bridge Wednesday at the Woman's Athletic club for Miss Williamson and her attendants. Friday Miss Marian Olcott was hostess at a dinner-dance for the bridal party at the Saddle and Cycle club.

Monday, Miss Eleanor Harriman will entertain the bride-elect and her maids at a bridge and kitchen shower at her home in the city, and the same evening, Indian Hill club will be the scene of a dinner-dance given by Miss Williamson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zeiss, of 1194 Fig street.

Wednesday, the groom's mother, Mrs. Charles Lewis Day, and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish of Glencoe will entertain at luncheon at the Woman's Athletic club after which the guests will attend a matinee performance of "Dancing Mothers."

Miss Emily Otis will give a dinner at the Casino, Wednesday evening, later taking her guests to see "Young Blood." Friday evening the bachelor dinner given by Mr. Day at the Harvard-Yale-Princeton club preceding the wedding rehearsal at the Church of the Ascension will close a round of gayeties. Mr. Day graduated from Yale and Miss Williamson is a Vassar graduate.
