

Gets Invitation, Threat in Mails From Our Village

Judge William N. Gemmill, of the superior court, Chicago, speaker at the Chamber of Commerce dinner, at Winnetka, Thursday evening of last week, prefaced his remarks by relating an incident of the previous day—an incident which the Judge viewed as of no significance, but which to others, no doubt, might appear more serious.

He received an anonymous letter, the author of which Judge Gemmill said, claims to be a friend of "Marty" Durkin, and who threatened dire vengeance upon the Judge if Durkin is convicted. Other judges received similar letters the same day, Judge Gemmill said.

The incident was related, not because of any importance which Judge Gemmill places upon the affair, but because of the postmark which the envelope bore. It was posted at Winnetka and came in the same mail in which arrived another letter from Winnetka, inviting him to speak at the Chamber of Commerce dinner. He was very happy, he said, to accept the invitation to Winnetka. Mrs. Bligh D. Grasett, a daughter of Judge Gemmill, resides at 797 Walden road.

As to the other letter, he said he paid no attention to it. He has received a thousand such letters and nothing has ever happened. Men who write such letters, he said, are cowards, and there won't anything happen.

Florence Farwell Strong Killed by Motor Truck

Mrs. Florence Farwell Strong, eldest daughter of Arthur Burrage Farwell of Glencoe, was instantly killed when struck by a motor truck in Miami, Florida, last Wednesday. It was said that Mr. Farwell, who is president of the Chicago Law and Order league, had been speaking on speed and reckless driving before a meeting of the Chicago Association of Commerce just before he received word of the tragedy. Mrs. Strong and her husband had been expected back next week for a visit, it was said by members of the family.

CORRECT STATEMENT

In publishing an announcement in last week's issue of the TALK commenting on the review given at the Woman's club by James Weber Linn of the fictional biography, "Ariel," the life of Shelley, an error was made in the statement that this work was not well done. Prof. Linn spoke of "Ariel" as a work "well done." WINNETKA TALK wishes to correct this error.
